Unnecessary Expense.

Acute attacks of colic and diarrhoea come on without warning and prompt relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's services in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before a doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no family should be without it. Son Was Not Worried

"The bravery of young men," said Rear Admiral Buhler at Atlantic City, "is a fact that I shall never cease to marvel over. Did you ever hear of a hope too forlorn, a risk too overwhelming for the young men of the armies and navies of the world to undertake?"

"If only the young men's wisdom equaled their bravery! But that is impossible. Sometimes I think that boys have so much bravery that there is no room in them for anything else."

"I use to know a boy who, was brave enough, but reckless, careless, extravagant. He accumulated a great quantity of debts."

"His father gave him a talking to one day."

"Suppose," he said, "that I should be taken away suddenly, what would become of you?"

"I'd stay here," the boy answered, smilingly, "The question is what would become of you?"

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

No one can reasonably hope for good digestion when the bowels are constipated. Mr. Chas. Baldwin, of Edwardsville, Ill., says: "I suffered from chronic constipation and stomach troubles for several years, but, thanks to Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, am almost cured." Why not get a package of these tablets and get well and stay well? Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

A Prize Essay

Man that is born of his parents is of few days and full of microbes. He goeth to school when a youngster and getteth his pants paddled for something he didn't do, until he is sick at heart. He groweth up like a weed in the back yard and soon reaches the age when he is composed largely of feet, freckles and an appetite for pie. About this time he gets too long for short trousers and not long enough for long ones, and goeth away to college, learneth how to monkey with a three dollar mandolin and play whiskey poker. He cometh home a bigger fool than ever and marreth a sweet young thing whose pa is supposed to be wealthy but whom he subsequently ascertains couldn't buy the prize rooster at the county fair. He worryeth along from year to year, gradually acquiring offspring until his house resembles a Sunday school class just before Christmas. He fretteth through the day and lieth awake nights trying to figure out how to keep himself and his dependents out of the poorhouse. His efforts are rewarded by having his daughters run away and get married and bring him home a son-in-law every few days to feast at his board. His sons grow up and call him governor and set him back a five spot every day or two. About this time he has acquired enough lucre to make it worth while for his heirs to quarrel over, he contracts a cold and is hurried away before he has time to have a talk with his family. His sons blow in his money for bad whiskey and plug hats, and his wife puts the finishing touches on his career by marrying the hired man.—Ex.

Summer Diarrhoea in Children.

During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, pastor of the first M. E. church, Little Falls, Minn., writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer disorders in children." Sold by O. O. Krogstad.
