Oregon is still in the limelight, thanks to the very good performances of the Portland baseball team.

Occasionally an enthusiastic Democratic newspaper refers to Mr. Bryan as "the matchless leader." Since when?

While Oregon's forest fires have not been as destructive as reported, the reports will help to keep up the price of lumber.

The State Fair at Salem, September 10 to 15 inclusive, will probably be a record-breaker—and that means something in Oregon.

Better be a stand-patter than a tariff flipper; but 'twere better still to be neither. There is no sense in going to extremes on this question.

One thing is certain: Should Taft succeed President Roosevelt he will not rattle around in the chair—either literally or metaphorically.

Nearly the entire detective force of Portland has been fired and citizens who are in the habit of carrying a little expense money are breathing easier.

The oldest inhabitant, who knows this is the driest season on record, will learn something to his advantage by consulting the weather reports of 1905.

A French newspaper accuses Bryan of being vain. This is nothing new. Bryan's inability to side-step a camera is an old and well-authenticated story.

The new railroad rate law, which applies to all railroads doing an interstate business, went into effect Monday at midnight—but the effect has not yet been noticed. Give it time.

The editor of The Oregonian has announced his intention of attending the State Fair for the purpose of seeing a milking machine work. It will be a big event in the life of the city-raised scribe.

John D. Rockefeller is said to be trying to purchase all the distilleries in the country. If John D. ever corners the booze market the retailer will be compelled to increase either the price or the quantity of water.

American labor is the best paid labor in the world; and the American laborer who doesn't blow his wages against booze and gambling will never fly the signal of distress. These are facts. Political bancombe to the contrary is not facts.

Eugene now advertises pure water. This is good news to every loyal citizen of Oregon. Eugene is about the best city in its class on the Coast and its unfortunate experience with bug-charged drinking water will soon be forgotten. Watch Eugene grow.

Prezzydem! Roosevelt is trying to persuade peepul to get the habit of spelling words as they sound. We believe his idea will be popular with only a small per cent of the kuntry's populashun, sutch as lawyers and skoolmoms, hoo kannot spel wel ennyhow.

The next session of the Oregon Legislature will undoubtedly have as a feature a bill providing for the exemption from taxation of property to the extent of $300, the same as the old law which has been declared unconstitutional. The people seem to want it—and the people are it.

President Roosevelt makes his regular weekly announcement through his secretary that he is not and will not be a candidate to succeed himself. There would be some satisfaction, not to say pleasure, in forcing upon His Stubbornness something he doesn't want. He might be hypnotized.

If Portland's notorious North End district were sawn off, a large number of no-account idle white trash would be compelled to work or skidoo. A city which provides a harbor for this class is responsible for much evil in the world. It may be a metropolitan idea and it may be a source of needed revenue, but it is not at all creditable.

Said bids will be received up to 12 o'clock, noon, of the various days upon which they are listed to be opened in above schedule, and must be enclosed in sealed envelopes directed to Knott C. Egbert, Superintendent, Siletz, Oregon. Envelopes containing such bids should not have noted thereon the description of the lands to which the bids relate, but there shall be noted on such envelopes the date upon which the bid is to be opened. Bidders should submit a draft on some Portland bank; otherwise remit enough to cover exchange on outside banks.

KNOTT C. EGBERT,
Supt. and Special Disbursing Agent, in Charge of Siletz Agency, Oregon.

HALL BROS.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE
SILETZ, OREGON

Attention is called to the fact that Newport, Or., frequently gets a bit of bad reputation which belongs to the famous resort of that name over on the Atlantic coast. The citizens and pleasure-seekers of our Newport are always entirely respectable and conspicuous for their good behavior. The habitues of the Atlantic resort are not weighed down with conscience or thickly veiled with modesty. Keep geography straight.

The Oregon Editorial Association will do business at Newport by the Sea September 22, 23 and 24; also have the best time ever. One of the leading features of the session will be a resolution setting forth that a merchant who doesn't advertise is an object of sympathy, and another will declare that a publisher who cuts prices is insane and irresponsible.

Railroads and rumors of railroads—principally the former, but enough of the latter to be tiresome.

Fair Suprised Foreigners

The shareholder of the Lewis and Clark exposition have been paid dividends of 23 1/2 per cent on the par value of their stock. This is something unheard of in the history of expositions, there usually being a deficit instead of a balance.—Casey (Iowa) Vindicator.

The intense itching characteristic of salt rheum and eczema is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. As a cure for skin diseases this salve is unequalled. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Preparing For Pendleton

Ex-Governor Geer was in the city yesterday and confirmed the report that he had purchased an interest in the Pendleton Tribune, saying that he and Mrs. Geer expected as soon as arrangements could be made to move to Pendleton and make their home there. While they regret to sever the numerous and warm social friendships which they so much enjoy in Salem, they expect to find pleasant surroundings in the eastern Oregon city and to make friendships that will be mutually agreeable. Governor and Mrs. Geer will certainly be missed from the life of the Capitol City, where they are both popular in all its walks. Mr. Geer says there is no political significance in his entry into the newspaper field, so far as he is personally concerned and it was a far-fetched conclusion of a Portland paper to assert he was taking the step in order to boost himself for senator later. A man's own newspaper is a mighty poor booster, Mr. Geer thinks, and his will not be put to that service.—Salem Statesman. Good!

"Take Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.
