CONTEST NOTICE.

U. S. Land Office, Portland, Oregon,
July 24, 1906.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by T. A. McIntyre, contestant, against homestead entry No. 14195, made June 10, 1902, for $\frac{1}{2}$ of $\frac{1}{2}$ of section 34 and 35, township 8 s., range 10 w., by William Paulhaver contestee, in which it is alleged that he is well acquainted with the land embraced in the said homestead entry and knows the present condition of the same; also that said entryman above-named has never established his residence on the said tract of land, nor has he ever resided thereon at any time or at all, and has wholly abandoned the same for a period of more than six months; also that he has not cultivated or improved the same in any manner whatsoever, and the only improvements on the claim consist of a rude cabin, and that said alleged absence from the said land was due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, and said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on September 19, 1906, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Portland, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed June 26, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

Popular and Picturesque.

The only thing necessary to make the Denver and Rio Grande the most popular, as it has ever been known the most pleasant and most picturesque way to cross the continent, has come about. This is the establishment of through sleeping car service.

In connection with the O. R. & N. a through Pullman Standard Sleeper is now run from Portland to Denver, leaving Portland at 8:15 p. m., arriving at Salt Lake at 8:30 a. m. the second morning, leaving Salt Lake at 3:50 p. m. and arriving at Denver 4:20 p. m. the following day. This schedule gives passengers seven hours stop over in Salt Lake, affording an opportunity to visit the Mormon Capital as well as a day light ride through the grandest scenery in the world.

For reservations in this car and for illustrated booklets picturing the scenery contiguous to the Denver & Rio Grande, proving it to be the "Scenic Line of the World," write to W. C. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third Street, Portland.
