Elk City Items.

Jefferson Myers of Portland has been among the trout for a day or two.

Mrs. Tassel returned from the valley the first of the week where she has been for a visit with friends.

The fishermen are commencing to smile now, as the salmon trout have made their appearance.

Hunting is not good since the game warden made his appearance, but bear and wildcat hunting is good.

J. R. Coopey and family returned to Portland the first of the week. Mr. Coopey's business called him home.

Daniel J. Fry of Salem called the last week of the looking after his interests in the cascara bark in this vicinity.

The Hodges building is commencing to take appearance of a real sawmill. It is a valuable improvement to Elk City.

Prof. Wilder and wife and P. A. McPherson and wife are spending their annual vacation here. We are always pleased to meet the Professor and his crowd, as everybody gets busy when they come.

The Toledo nine came up on the 25th and played a return game with Elk City. The game resulted in a victory for Elk City. Elk City will meet the Siletz nine on the Toledo diamond on the afternoon of September 2.

J. C. Moffat and Daniel McPhee of the San Francisco Builders Exchange have been in this vicinity for the past few days looking over the rock quarries. Lincoln county sandstone stood the test of the earthquake and fire in San Francisco better than other kinds of stone.

Bids Wanted.

Notice is hereby given that the County Court of Lincoln County, Oregon, will receive sealed bids to rebuild the South approach to the Elk City bridge spanning Big Elk river at Elk City. Said bids will be opened by the Court Wednesday morning, October 3, 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Better Grin Than Frown

DR. CHARLES C. ABBOT, the noted naturalist, writes as follows in the September number of Lippincott's Magazine:

Nature designed men for men and it is nature thwarted when they make fools of themselves. Almost as bad as it never to break a path for yourself. It is so easy to think another's thought that we shun the labor of thinking our own. So do we lessen the world's population by one, standing forever in vacated shoes. Some one I admire counts for one: why should not I? Alarmingly near the sublime is the ridiculous, but better to count a failure than to make no effort. Is it not to fall short when one is only known to his neighbor as their neighbor?

Such a waste of time! How often do I hear these deprecatory words. It is not really so. I am wearing out a pencil. I am using up a note-book. I am endangering a new pocket-knife. This is encouraging to more than one artisan. It is meritorious to give encouragement, and in due time I must furnish myself with simple needs. If I am not a producer, save of idle thoughts, I am at least a consumer, and sad the fate of the one without the other. There be those are always serious and therein make a serious mistake. Happiness is no ignoble aim. It is said to be vain to pursue it. So it is, but it is not vain when happiness seeks you out. I invited it to sit beside me, here in the shade of briars and rank weeds, and it accepted. Nature fashioned them and hers is no 'pretence hand. An honest weed is excellent company. Here I carry no burden but that of my thoughts. They never bear me down. Thinking is a pleasure, not a task. I leave to townsmen the solving of problems. While they are grave, I am gay. Though the mad world slides to Sheol, I will keep on smiling. The wrinkles of a grin are less taxing than the furrows of a frown.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

No one can reasonably hope for good digestion when the bowels are constipated. Mr. Chas. Baldwin, of Edwardsville, Ill., says: "I suffered from chronic constipation and stomach troubles for several years, but, thanks to Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, am almost cured." Why not get a package of these tablets and get well and stay well? Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Summer Diarrhoea in Children.

During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, pastor of the first M. E. church, Little Falls, Minn., writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer disorders in children."
