The shadow of the big stick seems to have a soothing effect on the excitable Cubans, who are badly in need of protection against themselves.

Mrs. Nick Longworth emulated a Democratic administration a few days ago and created a panic. Fortunately for all concerned, it was brief.

Stephen A. Douglas Puter, "King of the Oregon Land Sharks," has given warning that he will write a book. Steve is a desperate cuss and may carry his threat to a finish.

Baker City has an ordinance against the use of obscene language on the streets and is enforcing the same. Baker City is a good town; a towering monument of decency. Next!

A Portland society girl's "best feller" shipped with $25 of her money and other valuables. She doesn't know his name, but says he has a scab on his nose. What's in a name, anyhow?

The big rain which wet all over Oregon last week ruined a few hops and prunes, but did more good than can be told in a brief paragraph. Rain never does serious damage in Oregon. It's the dry states like Nebraska and Kansas that occasionally get too much water.

Hops are a source of revenue to the growers, the pickers, the brewers and the beer sellers. Beer produces brawls and bloodshed, resulting in revenue to the coroner, undertaker and lawyers. These little facts are called up by the recent tragedy at St. Paul, near Oregon's capital. Hoch der hops!

"We see by our dispatches" that it rained in North Carolina Monday and kept William Jennings Bryan from speechifying in the open air, as per program. However, William hired a hall and was not compelled to issue rain checks. The constant candidate is harder to break up than a baseball game.

A doctor from Greece has just landed in New York and announced that he came over for the purpose of making John D. Rockefeller a new stomach—that is, if John is willing to honor him with the contract. If the doctor will also remove John's gall and give him a new heart, the people will gladly make up a purse and foot the bill.

A young lady in Pennsylvania, aged only 17, has acquired a good education, is an accomplished musician—including the ability to sing to beat the band—and is a cracking good baseball player, her specialty being pitching. The man who would deny this girl the privilege of voting when she attains her majority hasn't a drop of sporting blood in his entire works.

Popular and Picturesque.

The only thing necessary to make the Denver and Rio Grande the most popular, as it has ever been known the most pleasant and most picturesque way to cross the continent, has come about. This is the establishment of through sleeping car service.

In connection with the O. R. & N. a through Pullman Standard Sleeper is now run from Portland to Denver, leaving Portland at 8:15 p. m. arriving at Salt Lake at 8:40 a. m. the second morning, leaving Salt Lake at 3:50 p. m. and arriving at Denver 4:20 p. m. the following day. This schedule gives passengers seven hours stop over in Salt Lake, affording an opportunity to visit the Mormon Capital as well as a day light ride through the grandest scenery in the world.

For reservations in this car and for illustrated booklets picturing the scenery contiguous to the Denver & Rio Grande, proving it to be the "Scenic Line of the World," write to W. C. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third street, Portland.
