The report that Mr. Bryan's voice is weakening is probably untrue.

John D. Rockefeller is missing again. There is some fear that he will be found.

The problem of how to get rid of his money is still worrying Andy Carnegie. If Andy were from Missouri, we'd try to show him.

The railroads will be built if the supply of Greeks, Japs and Chinamen holds out. Everybody works but the mighty free-born American citizen.

Stand up for Oregon all the time and on the slightest provocation. Don't even ignore the fact that the Portland baseball team is making a great record down in California.

It must make the thousands of big, brainy Democrats in the country feel like canceled stamps when they are told by Democratic newspapers that Bryan is the only man in the party who is big enough to be a Presidential candidate.

Old "Boss" Platt of New York complains that he has been whipped by his wife. Mr. Platt has been a power in politics, but has not been known as a champion of equal suffrage. The all-wise and all-powerful autist should remember what happened to Platt.

Mr. U'Ren, Oregon's expert lawsmith, acknowledges that he wouldn't have the heart to refuse a seat in the United States Senate if it were thrust upon him—or under him. Meanwhile he is supposed to be quietly looking around for somebody who will kindly consent to do the thrust act.

"Going to the front" is but little more than a joke with Uncle Sam's fighters who are being hurled to Cuba. There will be no fighting, but the bill of expense will not be light. Late reports indicate that the presence of Secretary Taft in Cuba is sufficient to quell the disturbance. The warring factions sized up the big Americano and immediately decided to be good.

A Pennsylvania man who was afflicted with rheumatism went to the races, got struck by lightning and lost his rheumatism, but not his life. This is probably the only incident of the kind on record. The great majority who take in the races will continue to lose their good money, contract heart disease and retain the rheumatism—if they happen to have it in stock.

Boys Hurt by Cigarettes.

Excessive use of tobacco, especially in the form of cigarettes, dulls the intellect, impairs nutrition, seriously affects the eyes, causes functional and organic heart disease, and in other ways contributes to physical and mental degeneracy.

Boys who smoke cigarettes much are prodigious liars and thieves, have been found unmanageable at home and at school, and judges of the juvenile courts have declared that "of the incorrigible and criminal class of boys, not a boy has been found who did not use cigarettes."

During the past decade the habit of cigarette smoking, especially by boys and young men before the age of maturity, has given rise to so many cases of chronic tobacco poisoning as to cause legislatures to enact laws preventing their sale to the youthful. Usually and unfortunately, many young adults who use tobacco excessively also indulge in alcohol, and in these subjects the use of both poisons often produces atrophy of the optic nerve or retina and other evils.—Professor Charles Mohr of Hahnemann College, Philadelphia.

A Novel Pastime.

A small boy was instructed that the breast of a chicken was called the white meat and the legs the dark meat. Soon after he went to spend the afternoon with his Sunday-school teacher, a young lady of whom he was very fond. Upon returning home, he was full of the good time he had had.

"And what did you do at Miss B's?" asked his mother.

"Oh, she told me wonderful stories. And I sat on her dark meat and leaned my head against her white meat!"—October Lippincott's.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

At Half Price for Cash.
