The idea of Representative B. F. Jones, as set forth in the Oregonian, providing for a state appropriation of $1,000,000 for the improvement of Oregon harbors, may not be a bad one, but it will hardly bear fruit. The proposed sum of $100,000 for each of Oregon's smaller harbors—of which Yaquina heads the list—would evaporate like dew in August, and leave but little more trace, unless it were expended in dredging and removing snags, and then the benefit would be only temporary. The people of this Yaquina Bay country have learned to expect nothing—and will probably continue to get it. However, they would try to survive the shock of a delightful surprise.

A gentleman, sah, got on a big toot in Portland the other night and was properly, if not too promptly, run in. When searched the gentleman's pockets yielded over $3000 and two gold watches. Had he remained sober and zubbared around the city for a few hours after sunset he would probably have been stood up for the whole bundle. Moral: If you must get drunk, get drunk in Portland.

A good many Democratic newspapers are devoting valuable space to criticism of President Roosevelt. Are they all from Missouri? The President has declared he will not again be a candidate and the wisest men of all parties take his word for it. Better pester Taft awhile.

A Filipino resident of Manila pawned the tombstone which marked the grave of his mother-in-law and was thrown into prison. There are plenty of men in America who wouldn't even assist in giving their mother-in-law a Christian burial, but the sin of omission wouldn't attract attention. The poor Filipino undoubtedly needed the money.

A Kansas City judge believes Rockefeller "is the most abused man in the country." John D. is evidently able to stand it; also able to show his appreciation of the sympathy of the Missouri justice dealer. Perhaps that's what the latter is fishing for.

Popular and Picturesque.
The only thing necessary to make the Denver and Rio Grande the most popular, as it has ever been known the most pleasant and most picturesque way to cross the continent, has come about. This is the establishment of through sleeping car service.

In connection with the O. R. & N. a through Pullman Standard Sleeper is now run from Portland to Denver, leaving Portland at 8:15 p. m. arriving at Salt Lake at 8:40 a. m. the second morning, leaving Salt Lake at 3:50 p. m. and arriving at Denver 4:20 p. m. the following day. This schedule gives passengers seven hours stop over in Salt Lake, affording an opportunity to visit the Mormon Capital as well as a day light ride through the grandest scenery in the world.

For reservations in this car and for illustrated booklets picturing the scenery contiguous to the Denver & Rio Grande, proving it to be the "Scenic Line of the World," write to W. C. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third street, Portland.

An Awful Cough Cured.
"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with which the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Hussard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by O. O. Krogstad.
