OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER

CHARLES F. SOULE, PROPRIETORS

Entered at the postoffice at Toledo, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

One Year Six Months Three Months

A "Merry Christmas" and a "Happy New Year" depend largely upon the conduct of the individual during the previous year. The man who is honest, industrious, temperate and economical (not stingy) is always sure of a "Merry Christmas" and a "Happy New Year," unless be is the victim of accident or illness. The Leader again wishes its readers a "Happy New Year."

Hicks, the California miner, who was buried alive by a cave-in and rescued after fifteen days, says he is going to ent out the booze. Hicks learned that he could get along nicely without the stuff when it wasn't within reach, and wisely decided to erase it from his list of necessities. It takes an awful experience to chase some men onto the safe old water wagon.

Weyerhneuser, "the timber king," is said to be the richest man in America, outranking even John D. Rockefeller. Weyerhaeuser indignantly denies the allegation-and he is probably right.

True, Very True.

Had Yaquina Bay been kept open, as it could have been, it would not have been necessary for the Willamette valley to have suffered the enormous loss it has from car shortage. Had Yaquina harbor been kept open, as it could have been, millions of feet of lumber could have been rushed to San Francisco following the disaster, relieving the traffic congestion here as well as the stricken city of California.-Albany

Two Types of Biographical Writing. It is an interesting fact in the history of literary genres that two of the great separates the completion of Johnson's "Lives of the Poets" from the publication of his own life by Boswell. Yet with the latter book a new type of blography came into being. Johnson, in the main, had, like most of his predeccssors, followed a simple narrative and expository method, prefixing a plain story of the poet's life to a systematic account of his character and a critical estimate of his works. He gathered his facts and impressions together and spoke for the author and for himself. Boswell, on the other hand, making use of a more dramatic method, succeeded in his attempt to let the picture of personality to which his owncomments were subordinate. What we see as a type of mind and character in Johnson's work we see as a living man in Boswell.-William T. Brewster in Forum.

Wise Girl.

she had three wooers. The first wooer said she was the whole world to him, but she frowned upon his suit. The second wooer said she was the sun, moon and stars to him, but she bade him be on his way.

"To me," said the third, "you are a young woman of agreeable manners, with eyes that might be a little bluer, with a nose that is a wee bit puggy and with a few freckles and an annoying habit of blurting out your thoughts."

She married the third wooer. Being pressed for an explanation of her conduct, she said:

"My goodness! I think I was sensible. I married the only one that had courage enough to tell me of my faults before marriage, instead of waiting to throw them up to me afterward."-Lafe.

Stashing of Salads.

in nearly every other respect are guilty times to be reduced to lower dimensions, so to speak, but it need not be done by the wholesale or quite in the businesslike fashlon practiced by some. Grasping a kulfe in one hand and a fork in the other, they slash away at the inoffensive green stuff with a vigor and a noise of a miniature mowing machine until the bruised leaves are converted into shreds of their former selves. There is common sense it the convention that prohibits such a course. Nearly all green salada are broten into pieces of convenient store, give them a trial and you, too, size before sending to the table. Even will want them in preference to any when these are too large the leaf other. They care stemach troubies, should be quietly divided with a fork. biliousness and constipation.
