All the colored troops in the United States will soon be sent to the Philippines. This may relieve the embarrassing situation—just a little bit.

The Yaquina Bay country is not suffering from a car shortage, but has an abundance of sympathy for the afflicted. A few steamers plying between Yaquina Bay and coast points, with more business for the Corvallis & Eastern might help some. Beg pardon—we're dreaming!

The thirst for notoriety seems to be keeping pace with the country. It is well understood that any man who commits a murder or any other dirty or devilish crime will have the pleasure of seeing his picture in the daily newspapers. The chance to harvest such an honor appeals to a large element.

United States Senator Gearin of Oregon made his maiden speech Monday from the floor of the Senate, and the Oregonian's Washington correspondent says Mr. Gearin "covered himself with glory." There was no politics in the Senator's talk—just real logic, properly presented, relative to the labor and negro questions.

A well-known Portland preacher recently called the members of the council of that city "a lot of unprincipled jackasses." The preacher might have been getting close to the truth, but it isn't always necessary or wise for even a preacher to speak the truth. That Portland preacher should take his tongue to a lapidary.

On another page will be found a letter from Portland under the caption, "Oregon Facts Desired." It contains some valuable pointers for every enterprising citizen of Lincoln county—every man who has an interest in its growth and prosperity. Get the habit; be a booster. Help to make your little piece of Oregon "just as good as Hood River"—or any other man's little piece.

The Standard Oil Company will be called into court in Chicago on the 15th inst., and has given notice that it will plead not guilty to eight certain indictments. No other plea could reasonably be expected from that source, and, unless the Court and the prosecutor are very careful and altogether taintproof, Standard Oil will prove its innocence, and the consumer will, as usual, pay the freight.

Alva Adams, ex-Governor of Colorado, is pleading before the Constitutional Convention now in session at Guthrie, Okla., for the insertion of a plank in Oklahoma's constitution extending to women the voting franchise. Mr. Adams' opinion on this question is entitled to respect. He knows that woman suffrage has been a success in Colorado, notwithstanding the adverse reports scattered abroad by the antis.

William Jennings Bryan will undoubtedly be the "third-term" candidate on the Democratic ticket, but there is neither law, precedent nor political etiquette against it. Besides, William Jennings is the only "logical candidate" in his party. It must make a large number of Democratic statesmen feel bad in the region of their aspirations when they are confronted by this widely and constantly advertised fact.

Prosecutor Francis J. Heney has severed his connection with the Oregon land-fraud cases and once more got his picture in some of the Oregon dailies. He will devote all his valuable time to the prosecution of the San Francisco grafters and, incidentally, have his picture run in the Bay City papers d. h., t. f. There are thousands of obscure lawyers in the country who would soon become as famous as Mr. Heney if the newspapers would applaud every time they opened their mouths. Heney is simply a good lawyer with a good pull. Influential friends picked him up, stood between him and his inclination to go the pace that kills, and finally gave him the opportunity to attract the public eye through the medium of the leading press. For a large gob of his glory Heney is largely indebted to an army of assistants and the combination of the United States Treasury.

Best thing on earth—Oregon rain.

Walnut growing is undoubtedly the proper caper. The first act is to get the trees. Don't plant them before you get them.

Trouble is in store for Lentz, a suburb of Portland. An enterprising but thoughtless citizen has hung up some cash prizes to be awarded to the women in the community who makes the best bread. The contest is set for tomorrow. The prize money is cut into three pieces—all the same horse race. The judges and the winners would better take to the woods as soon as possible after the verdict is returned.

As it is in Australia.

While the family which has added a new stock of subjects to the interest of breakfast-table conversation is so uncommon as to attract no notice, the family disintegrated by political differences has not yet been unearthed, even by the most obstinate legislative councillor. I have been present at many political meetings, and at several elections in more than one state, and I have exercised my own vote. I have never upon one single occasion had reason to wish myself or other women away. The meetings have improved in tone and in earnestness; and women have, with Tennyson's ideal wife, gained in breadth of view. The polling-booths are as respectable as the vestibule of a railroad depot or a theater, and the process of voting is as simple as that of buying a ticket. The ordinary housewife votes during the slack hours when she would be out marketing, very likely, any way, the baby—who was to be, so we were told, so hopelessly neglected when his mother took to politics—often accompanying her in his go-cart.—By Miss Alice Henry.

The LEADER and Oregonian—the best for the money—$2 per year.
