Kick. Keep kicking. And don't quit kicking. One pull one way and one to other. Go to other towns to buy your goods. Denounce your merchants because they make a profit on their goods.
Knife every man that disagrees with you on the method of increasing business. Make your own town out a very bad place and stab it every chance you get. Refuse to unite in any scheme for the betterment of the material interests of the people. Tell your merchant that you can buy goods a great deal cheaper in another town and charge him with extortion. Keep every-cent you get and don't do anything of a public nature unless you can make something out of it directly. When you say anything of your town say it in such a way that it will leave the impression that you have no faith in it.
Patronize outside newspapers to the exclusion of your own, and denounce them for not being as large as the city papers.—Ex.

"Pinenles" (non alcoholic) made from resin from our Pine Forests, used for hundreds of years for Bladder and Kidney diseases. Medicine for thirty days, $1. Guaranteed. Sold by Otto O.
Krogstad's drug store.

A would-be editor, who is always boasting himself capable of writing and clipping better than the chief, was told to get out and rustle some copy on his own account, and this was the first shake out of his rattle box: "Now comes the season of discontent, when your body with chills is sorely rent, your Summer wages almost spent, your Winter song the chump's lament. Alas, too soon you will discover that troubled dreams of the loving lover, the fondling visions that in fancy hover, is the result of your wife swiping all the cover." And the editor pronounced the woman the most sensible kicker in that family.

THE NEW YORK WORLD Thrice-a-Week Edition.

Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

The Thrice-a-Week World is fair in its political reports. You can get the truth from its columns, whether you are Republican or Democrat, and that is what you want.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.
The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.
