CONTEST NOTICE.

Land Office at Portland, Oregon, January 8, 1907. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Elizabeth W. Adams, contestant, against Homestead Entry No. 14772, made July 21, 1902, for the nw 1/4 section 35, township 8 s, range 9 w, by William D. Coates, contestee, in which it is alleged that from information and belief, she is well acquainted with the tract of land embraced in the homestead entry, and from such information and belief, knows the present condition of the same; also that said William D. Coates has never resided upon or made his home upon said land, but has abandoned the same, especially for the last six months; that no cultivation has been made thereon, and that there are no improvements except a small house; and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 2 o'clock p. m. on February 20, 1907, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Portland, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed December 27, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication. ALGERNON S. DRESSER, Register.

Worth Reading.

"Washington, A National Epic in Six Cantos" by Edward Johnson Runk, published by G. P. Putnam's Sons, 27 West 23d Street, New York City, was written to commemorate the centennial celebration of the inauguration of President George Washington, 1789-1889. The Epic reviews the entire revolutionary period, with Washington as the hero, and the Hudson Highlands as the topographical center. The work is fast finding its place in the public and private libraries of the country. We are privileged to announce that Mr. Runk has also written two other epic poems, is preparing for their publication, and has already given popular readings, which have been well received, from the divine trilogy of epics, "Washington," "Cosmos," "Christos"
