The Coast Region.

Great development of the coast region in Oregon, the comparatively narrow slope from the summit of the Coast range to the Pacific, will undoubtedly take place in the near future. That at least one railroad will extend from Astoria to Coos bay along the coast is certain, and no more so than that there will be several roads connecting the coast with the Willamette, Umpqua and Rogue river valleys. This hitherto isolated and neglected region, including Clatsop, Tillamook, Lincoln, Coos, Curry, and portions of Linn and Douglas counties, will ere long be awakened to activity and enterprise. Forests will be converted into lumber, lands already suitable for dairying and other agricultural purposes will be utilized to a far greater extent, and year by year new areas of cleared land will be converted into farms. Settlers will push into this region by thousands in the course of a few years, and the products of forest, field, dairy and mine will supply a large and ever-increasing traffic for the railroads, and for vessels touching at Coos bay, Tillamook, Yaquina, and at the mouths of the Siuslaw and Umpqua. Taken altogether, this is a region of great resources in timber, in dairy lands, in the making of farming lands, in coal lands, and in fishing grounds.—Portland Journal.

Lame Back.

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles and may be cured by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm two or three times a day and rubbing the parts vigorously at each application. If this does not afford relief, bind on a piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm, and quick relief is almost sure to follow. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Down!

Saint Peter, 'tis said, sits out by the gate, his hands on the strings of his lyre; and he sings as he sits a low song as he waits for the spirit of those who expire. He hears in the distance the chorus of song that swells at the foot of the throne, and he smiles as the music is wafted along, and warbles this lay of his own: "There's room in this region for millions of souls who by sorrow and woe were bereft; 'tis for those who have suffered the melody rolls, but kickers must turn to the left. There's room for the people who when they were young persisted in sowing wild oats, yet who boomed up their town with sinew and tongue—but the kicker must go with the goats. There's room for the people who pointed with pride to the beauty and growth of their town, who kept singing its praises and charms till they died—but the kickers will please amble down. There's room for the people who cheerfully paid their taxes for sewers and lights, but the kickers must stay where the drainage is bad and the burnt sulphur illumines the nights. There's room for the voters on whose loyal support their party could always rely, but the kickers must go to the satanic court—a place they can't bolt when they die. There is room for all those who at last and at first supported their tradesmen at home, but the kickers who branded home goods as the worst of mansions for ever must roam. They'd say that the music was all out of tune and the angelic robes hand-me-downs, and they'd send for a jeweler off to the moon to sample the gold in their crowns. So while there is room for the millions of souls who by sorrow or woe are bereft, we want no complaint of the music that rolls, and the kickers will turn to the left.—Borrowed.

A Habit to be Encouraged.

The mother who has acquired the habit of keeping on hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy saves herself a great amount of uneasiness and anxiety. Coughs, colds and croup, to which children are susceptible, are quickly cured by its use. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and if given as soon as the first symptoms of croup appear, it will prevent the attack. This remedy contains nothing injurious and mothers give it to little ones with a feeling of perfect security. Sold by O. O. Krogstad.

For Sale—1 acre home 1/4 mile from Toledo; 5 room house, woodshed, good well, spring, chicken house, small berries, good garden spot, all fenced. $350 cash. Enquire at LEADER office.

Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup containing Honey and Tar is especially appropriate for children. No opiates or poisons of any character, conforms to the conditions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law, June 30, 1906. For Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It expels Coughs and Colds by gently moving the bowels. Guaranteed. Sold by Otto O. Krogstad's drug store.

A Queer Case.

"Riding on an elephant in Ceylon, behind a native prince on a hunting expedition," said a clergyman, "the conversation chanced to turn on indigestion, to which I said I was subject. The prince at once pulled out a black leather button kind of thing, which he was wearing on a string round his neck under his clothes. "What's this?" said I. "A hyena's snout," was the startling reply. "What for?" "To cure indigestion." "How can it do this?" "It is very simple. A hyena gets its living by digging up and crunching old bones. Now, it possesses in its snout this peculiar virtue—that when its nose approaches anything hard, such as bones, these tough substances instantly grow soft and enable the animal to eat them with comfort and benefit. So you will find that if you keep this charm hanging round your neck the proximity of the hyena's nose, though dried up and lifeless, will soften your food, however indigestible, to such an extent that you will never again suffer from indigestion."

Itching Piles.

If you are acquainted with anyone who is troubled with this distressing ailment, you can do him no greater favor than to tell him to try Chamberlain's Salve. It gives instant relief. This salve also cures sore nipples, tetter and salt rheum. Price 25 cents. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.
