Unsophisticated Mary.

Toledo, Oregon, has the honor of producing the greenest servant girl yet on record, and the experience which the family of J. Adrian Epping had with this particular Mary puts the old story about the girl who served the tomatoes undressed away below par. In making a change in servants Mrs. Epping requested the one who was leaving to remain a day or so and break in the new girl, who seemed to be quite unsophisticated. Mary was accordingly instructed how to conduct the household duties and seemed deeply interested as each item was explained to her. "Come, Mary, and I'll show you how to order the oysters for lunch," said the retiring maid. "I will telephone for them." Mary gazed with open-eyed wonder at Susan talking into the telephone but could not doubt the reality of it as she heard all the conversation but when they were through talking she excitedly inquired: "And now, Susan, shall I run and get a dish to catch 'em in?"—Oregonian, Feb. 25.

The above funnygraph is a vile slander. Toledo girls know all about oysters and telephones. It's dollars to doughnuts "Mary" is a Portland girl who has never been outside the city, who had never before been introduced to a Yaquina Bay oyster.

Mrs. Harry K. Thaw is still on trial for killing Stanford White by proxy. Her husband—the proxy—like the flowers that bloom in the spring, trail—has nothing to do with the case. After Mrs. Thaw has proven to the satisfaction of Prosecutor Jerome that she is a soiled dove, her proxy may be declared insane and sent to the bug-house until he gets over it. Harry K. Thaw is financially able to convince the asylum authorities that he is not off his balance, and he will probably be caged not longer than six months. The trial has been in progress six weeks, and the above guess is the popular one.

John W. Kelley of the Portland Telegram staff brands the late State Senate as all right, but dishonest, while Dana Sleeth of the same paper sizes up the House as honest, but not all right. By their combined efforts these pencil pushers have put the Legislature in the list of calamities, side-stepping occasionally to toss a few tiny bouquets. They don't seem to appreciate the fact that the Legislature was composed principally of "people's choice" statesmen—the very pick of Oregon. Their criticism is not in order.

Attached to one of Governor Chamberlain's numerous vetoes was this bit of sage advice: "Care should be taken in framing laws so that the uninitiated can discover his duties as a citizen without the aid of an expert lawyer." In other words, the Governor is one of the "uninitiated," and not an "expert lawyer," as he is popularly supposed to be. Our lawmakers should indite their bills in words of one syllable, and attach to each a pocket dictionary.

It is denied by certain knowing ones that Jim Hill is interested in the road coming down the coast or that he has purchased the A. & C. It is also denied by certain other knowing ones that Harriman has purchased the C. & E. There are a large number of good liars and a few poor guessers interested in railroad affairs.

The Dallas Observer now makes its appearance twice a week and is worth $3 a year, but Editor Hayter holds the price at $1.50. Patrons of the Observer are getting more than their money's worth.

There is kicking in Clackamas county over increased taxes. One citizen showed his anger by yanking the knob off the courthouse door. Some Lincoln county taxpayers threaten to yank the knob off the assessor.

The Thaw trial makes the fiction of Zola and other sensational writers look very respectable and commonplace. Truth smells stronger than fiction.

North Dakota has lined up for President Roosevelt for another term. Say, it's getting serious.

There is evidently lots of work in store for the referendum in Oregon.

Bees Laxative Cough Syrup containing Honey and Tar is especially appropriate for children, no opiates or poisons of any character, conforms to the conditions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law, June 30, 1906. For Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It expels Coughs and Colds by gently moving the bowels. Guaranteed. Sold by Otto O. Krogstad's drug store.

An exchange says that a certain Southern Oregon editor has made $10,000 during the past ten years. This much-to-be desired state of affairs was brought about by exercising prudence, foresight, wise investments, frugality, and the further fact that an uncle recently died and left him $9,998.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeable and Effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Somebody who wants to explain what the editorial "we" means, says its meaning varies to suit the circumstances. For instance when you read that "we are a little late in our work" it means the whole office force, even the devil and the towel. If "we are having a boom," the town is meant. "We have the cholera in our midst" refers only to the illness of the man who takes the paper two or three years without paying for it.—Arlington Record.

Insure your residence and farm buildings in the Oregon Fire Relief Association and save almost one-half the expense of the "combine" insurance company rate. Drop a line to me and I will furnish you rates and full information. O. MIDDLEKAUFF, Agent, Ona, Or.

THE NEW YORK WORLD
Thrice-a-Week Edition.

Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

The Thrice-a-Week World is fair in its political reports. You can get the truth from its columns, whether you are Republican or Democrat, and that is what you want.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

Tetter, Salt Rheum and Eczema.

These are diseases for which Chamberlain's Salve is especially valuable. It quickly allays the itching and smarting and soon effects a cure. Price 25 cents. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

There are more McCall Patterns sold in the United States than of any other make of patterns. This is on account of their style, accuracy and simplicity.
