Bad Move for Farmers.

In vetoing the Johnson road bill, Governor Chamberlain no doubt had a purpose, but what it is we have no idea. It was quite generally supposed that the Tuttle law would be repealed at the last session of the legislature, and when the Johnson bill passed both houses, practically repealing the Tuttle law, no further effort was made to repeal it. Now that the Governor has taken advantage of his power to negative the bill, the Tuttle law is still in effect and just as unconstitutional as ever.

If Mr. Chamberlain was courting favor from the farming element for future benefit he made a great mistake. The Tuttle law is disapproved by 99 per cent of the farmers and when the Governor sanctioned this law by vetoing one of greater importance, he has retarded the good roads movement in Oregon and met with disapproval. Farmers do not want good roads established under the provisions of the Tuttle law and cities will not have them. This was demonstrated in Silverton last year when a movement was on foot to build a road east of the city, but was abandoned on account of lack of support on the part of Silverton taxpayers.—Silverton Appeal.

The news that patents to public lands which have been held up so long will soon be granted to honest settlers causes considerable of that glad feeling in Lincoln county. Ex-Secretary Hitchcock's plan of making the innocent suffer with the guilty places him in the list with the meanest old cusses who have ever been clothed with a little brief authority. However, the cultured but ignorant people of the East will continue to fire bouquets at him and look upon the people of the west as a band of robbers.

It is now reported that Jim Hill will not extend the A. & C. into Tillamook county and then on to Yaquina Bay and then on to God knows where until he has completed the north bank road into Portland. These big railroad magnates are such awful liars it is easy to be cheerful and hopeful in the face of bad news.

The Portland bowling team which participated in the tournament at Denver recently returned without honors and all shriveled up. The high altitude and arid climate did it. When the Denver bowlers come to Portland they may swell up and pop open.

At an auction sale of live stock at Savannah, Mo., recently, three Iowa men paid $2000 for a Duroc Jersey sow. The Missouri male is in danger of being rooted out of his berth in the Hall of Fame.

John D. Rockefeller has made his will and is getting ready to give millions to Sweet Charity—so it is reported. Important, if true. Meanwhile the prices of oil and other Rockefeller products continue to climb.

If Bryan insists on being a candidate for a third defeat, President Roosevelt may yet be shown his right to be a candidate for a third term. However, a new deal all around would be welcome as a monotony buster.

Dallas, county seat of our neighbor, Polk county, contemplates purchasing a rock crusher. Penny-wise-and-pound-foolish towns and counties take notice.

With expert witnesses like Puter and Sorenson to testify against him, something very serious may happen to Hermann.

It is now a misdemeanor to dock horses' tails in California. It should be declared a crime by every state.

The mercury registered 102 in the shade Tuesday in Oklahoma. The new state seems to be a warm number.

The King of Spain has the grip. We believe this makes it unanimous.

Tetter, Salt Rheum and Eczema.

These are diseases for which Chamberlain's Salve is especially valuable. It quickly allays the itching and smarting and soon effects a cure. Price 25 cents. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Dade's Little Liver Pills thoroughly clean the system, good for lazy livers, makes clean complexions, bright eyes and happy thoughts. Sold by Otto O. Krogstad's drug store.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeable and Effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Peiham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.
