Rev. John Oval of Portland talked on temperance in Toledo last Sunday, at the Lutheran church in the morning and at the M. E. church in the evening. Next day he got busy and rounded up some evidence against Gust Olson.

Spring and planting time is at hand. If you expect to reap you must sow and be sticking in a bit here and there. Flower seeds, garden seeds, grass seeds and a few extra early Bovee potatoes (originated by Henderson) for sale at Krogstad's.

Andy Porter's surveying gang passed through this morning, having reached Newport with the preliminary survey down the coast for the Jim Hill road. The road has been located only as far south as Tillamook. Mr. Porter and his men have been out since last September.

The Portland Journal tells a little story about an Oregon hen which hatched out a brood of chickens in two weeks, claiming that the feat breaks all records for time. But it doesn't. Mrs. J. F. Stewart of this city recently placed a duck egg under a hen, just to afford the hen a little amusement, and three weeks later biddy came off the nest with a downy little duckling. This beats the average time for hatching ducks by one week.

"Pineules" (non-alcoholic) made from resin from our Pine Forests, used for hundreds of years for Bladder and Kidney diseases. Medicine for thirty days, $1. Guaranteed. Sold by Otto O. Krogstad's drug store.
