Brazen March is still sented in the lap of coy April.

The editor of the Tillamook Herald is the proud defendant in a $5000 libel suit.

Senator Bourne has had a walking match with the President and held his own. Bully—in other words—de-lighted.

Ex-Senator Mulkey of Oregon, "the handsomest man in the Senate"—don't forget it—says President Roosevelt has a few warm enemies in the National capital. Sad news.

President Roosevelt accuses Harrison of uttering a "deliberate and willful untruth." A man with a less extensive vocabulary would have called the railroad boss a liar.

A Seattle man asks for a divorce because his wife whipped him more than 100 times in four years. A man who can't stand a little thing like that should be sentenced for life to the Orphan's Home.

During the month of March the public debt decreased $11,538,288; the receipts for the month exceeded the expenditures by $10,619,946, while the coinage of the mints was $6,630,894. Uncle Sam is making Rockefeller sit up and take notice.

The A. & C. has been publicly adopted by the Hill system, but the report of the sale of the C. & E. to the Harriman system has not been confirmed. Wait for it. Meanwhile it is reported that the C. & E. is preparing to do business as is business. Good.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by O.O. Krogstad.

Piles are dangerous but do not submit to an operation until you have first tried Man Zan, the Great Pile Remedy. It is put up in collapsible tubes with a nozzle that allows it to be applied exactly where it is needed. If you have itching, bleeding or protruding piles and Man Zan does not relieve money refunded. Stitches and cools. Relieves at once. Sold by Otto O. Krogstad's drug store.

EUREKA!

Yes, I Have Found it at Last.

Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin diseases. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—Elder John T. Ongley, Rootville, Pa. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.
