Mr. and Mrs. Barney Morrison, well known to all the older residents of Polk county, celebrated the 61st anniversary of their wedding, Sunday, April 14. Few couples in Oregon have lived a longer married life. The old people are spending their declining years in comfort at their pleasant mountain home at Pioneer, Lincoln county.—Dallas Observer.

The Hawkins Illustrated Concert Company entertained a good audience last evening at Woodmen Hall. The illustrated songs were well done and the moving pictures representing leading features in the story of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" were quite interesting. The two young men who constituted the company are pretty good singers, but they were handicapped by colds contracted in the semi-arid Willamette Valley.

Commissioner Ballinger of the General Land Office promises to "take the lid off" and give Oregon a square deal in the matter of homesteads and timber lands. There's a grain of comfort in this bit of news. The policy of Secretary Hitchcock was loaded with injustice, and hundreds of honest settlers were made to suffer with a corporal's guard who violated the law as construed by Hitchcock. Lincoln county will appreciate its share of the promised square deal.

Rebekahs in Convention.

The first annual convention of the 11th District, Rebekah Degree, was held in Woodmen Hall in Toledo last Friday afternoon and evening. The officers for the occasion were:

Chairman, Mrs. Ross M. Schenck; Secretary, Mrs. A. L. Thomas; Chaplain, Mrs. D. S. Young; Conductor, Mrs. Mary Wygant; Marshal, Mrs. Ada E. Soule; Inside Guardian, Mrs. Jennie Fish; Outside Guardian, Mrs. Jennie Arnold.

Mrs. Eda Jacobs, treasurer of the Rebekah Assembly, and Miss Pauline Kline, both of Corvallis, were present and lent valuable assistance. The latter instituted Do Good Rebekah Lodge of Toledo, in which she still retains more than a passing interest. The Corvallis visitors complimented the local Rebekahs highly upon their efficiency.

The floor work in the evening was followed by a very successful banquet, at which J. F. Stewart gracefully officiated as toastmaster. Toasts were responded to as follows: "Success," Miss M. L. Hampton; "Environment," B. F. Swope. The subjects were ably handled and the speakers generously applauded. Miss Mamie Wakefield's paper on "Fraternity" was in every way a credit to its well-known and popular author.

In preparing the feast for the occasion the local Rebekahs lived up to their reputations, and the entire affair elicited many kind words from the visitors.

Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Culver, Mesdames M. Wygant, A. L. Thomas, O. C. Graves, J. Rader, Miss Etta Irvin, Messrs. George Sylvester, B. F. Swope and Adrian Ford, Rhododendron Lodge, Newport; Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Trapp, Misses Mamie Wakefield and M. L. Hampton, Mr. Ches. Morrison, Twilight Lodge, Elk City.

Tell It All.

Before kicking at the little rain we get in the Willamette Valley, read the record of all the coast cities, Astoria, Tillamook, Toledo, Newport, Marshfield, over twice as much as we have at Albany.—Albany Democrat.

Before kicking at the copious rains we get in Lincoln county, read the sunshine record for the winter months in the Willamette Valley—only about one-half as many clear days as we have in Toledo. And in the summer time the Willamette Valley beats us in the dust record by about 1000 per cent, while the good people out there all come over here to cool off. But we're not knocking the Willamette Valley.

Call for County Warrants.

Yesterday and today will go on record as a very busy period in the office of County Clerk Wade, owing to a big grist of timber claim proofs.

F. M. Wadsworth went to Portland Monday for a visit with his sons Frank or Chapin. His son George and wife have charge of the farm during his absence.

Nothing pays better on the investment than the planting and sowing of seeds of all kinds. Fresh and reliable bulk seeds for the garden and field at Krogstad's.

Mrs. M. Wygant of Newport passed through yesterday morning en route to Corvallis. On account of the storm she was unable to take her millinery goods to Eddyville, as advertised.

Fred Weatherford of Albany had business in various parts of Lincoln county the fore part of the week. He was in Toledo yesterday with other parties doing surveying and things for the C. & E. Railroad Company.

A. L. McDonald has leased his farm near Chitwood and is working for his country in the Fir and Spruce Lumber Company's logging camp on Olalla, of which Jay Dunn is commander-in-chief.

Wants a Scalp Bounty.

Angora, Or., April 16, 1907.

Editor LEADER: The wildcats have been killing lambs in this neighborhood. I paid a man $9 a short time ago for hunting cats. He killed two. Both were started in Lincoln county, but were killed in Benton. It seems to me that one of the smallest of little things Lincoln county does is to refuse to pay a bounty for destroying such animals. It is not fair or just that Lincoln county should treat her neighbor, Benton, that way; besides it would be a benefit to Lincoln county's stock interests, for there is where it gets a good share of its taxes, and the sooner these pests are exterminated, the better for the county. I hope the county will decide to give on wildcats $2, on cougar and bear $5 each. It would then be an inducement for others than stockmen to hunt and kill them. We are talking of giving a neighborhood bounty. I for one in this neighborhood will give $2 per scalp if the rest will. E. M. Beals says he will give $2 on wildcats, cougar and bear.
