More snow fell in Nebraska on the 13th inst. "Oh what must it be to be there!"

Rockefeller's fortune is reported to be dwindling rapidly, now being placed by knowing ones at only $300,000,000. Poor John!

Friends of Taft deny the charge that the latter is "trying to kill Foraker." We really believe if Taft wanted to kill Foraker, he'd sit on him.

Harvey W. Scott of the Oregonian has just returned via Washington, D.C., from a visit to the Holy Land. Mr. Scott is very enthusiastic over the glorious climate of Oregon.

The Journal says a 4-year-old Portland boy fell into a tub of hot water, which caused the flesh to "peel" away. The "peel" probably came from the poor little boy's vocal works.

If the rumor that the Curtis Lumber Company has decided to put on a vessel to carry its product out by way of Yaquina Bay proves to be more than a rumor, the good people in this part of Oregon will be just a little bit surprised and very much gratified.

Reports indicate there will be a crop shortage this season in all parts of the country except Oregon. However, the shortage will not be a famine producer. America will still be able to whack up with Russia, China and other victims of chronic shortage.

Governor Hughes of New York, in a somewhat roundabout way, says he doesn't want to be President. The race is narrowing down to Taft, Foraker and Fairbanks. Mr. Roosevelt, of course, is not to be considered—that is, if he meant what he said on the subject.

The shovel operators on the Panama canal job have struck for higher wages and, failing to get the raise, chartered a vessel and headed back to the United States. The oppressed shovel men have been receiving only $210 per month. The strike germ seems to be working overtime.

Don't try to smoke while riding on a Portland street car, for its "agin" the rules. In this connection we note that the Portland W. C. T. U. has declared smoking in any old place to be a nuisance. The dear women are right, of course, but they can never suppress the pleasant vice. Many smokers will continue to justify themselves by quoting the famous declaration of Abraham Lincoln: "A man who has no vices has very few virtues"—only Abe didn't use the word "very." By the way, we agree with Abe.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

U. S. Land Office, Portland, Oregon,
April 19, 1907.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Fred E. Keene, of Lebanon, county of Linn, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 755, for the purchase of the NW 1/4 of section 32 in township 12 S., range 8 W., and NW 1/4 offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the County Clerk of Benton county, at Corvallis, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 16th day of July, 1907.

He names as witnesses:
Thomas J. Carra of Corvallis, Or.; E. W. Allen of Philomath, Or.; Wesley January of Harlan, Or.; R. G. Keene of Lebanon, Or.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 16th day of July, 1907.
