The convention of the Oregon Development League at Portland, June 21 and 22 will be of unusual interest to every part of Oregon, as it means "a pull all together" for the entire state. Lincoln county should be represented by representative, enthusiastic business men and farmers. Especially attractive to the latter will be the live stock show. The day of scrub cattle in Oregon is fast disappearing, and Lincoln county stockmen should be ambitious to connect with all the valuable pointers within reach.

San Francisco and the surrounding country got another shake-up between 12 and 1 o'clock Wednesday. While no serious damage resulted, they were properly panic-stricken for a few minutes. Some people would rather be scared to death in California than live in peace and die of old age in Oregon.

Dr. Harry Lane, Democrat, was re-elected Mayor of Portland by a plurality of 641. The other city officials, except one councilman, are Republicans, and they were elected by big majorities. Mayor Lane is said to be indulging in sweet dreams, in which figure the easy shoes of Governor Chamberlain.

Attorney-General Crawford holds that the referendum petition on the University of Oregon appropriation is "fatally defective," in that it does not contain "a full and correct copy of the measure," as required by law. Next.

Too bad! There isn't a Republican in Portland who is morally or mentally fit to be Mayor of that city.

Do Not Neglect the Children.

At this season of the year the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention. The best thing that can be given is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by castor oil as directed with each bottle of the remedy. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

A doctor was called to the house of a lawyer. Sally, the hired girl, was sick abed. When the doctor was alone with the girl, she said: "I am not sick at all, but Mrs. owes me three months wages and I will stay in bed till she pays me." "Will she pay?" asked the doctor. "Oh sure, she has come down with the cash before." "Make room for me," said the doctor, "she owes me just one hundred dollars."
