S. P. Absorbs C. & E.

The Oregonian of Wednesday, the 12th inst., hands out the following bit of news, which has for several months been floating around as a rumor:

Within two weeks the Corvallis & Eastern railroad will be formally taken over by the Harriman interests and operated by officials chosen from the Harriman ranks. A. B. Hammond, president of the road, tendered his resignation at a meeting of the directors in Albany on Monday. His successor has not yet been elected, but it is expected that J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the Harriman lines in the Pacific Northwest, will be president of the road. It is said that the Corvallis & Eastern will be operated as a separate line and will retain its name and individuality.

The date has not yet been set for a meeting of the directors to choose the next president of the road, but it is expected to take place within the next two weeks. At that time the property will be formally taken over.

It is understood that G. W. Talbot, now general manager and treasurer of the C. & E., will be made vice-president and general manager, succeeding J. K. Weatherford of Albany, as vice-president. Mr. Talbot will probably retain his Portland offices.

J. A. Shaw is now secretary of the road, and his successor has not yet been decided upon. It is probable that H. F. Connor or W. R. Litzberg, of W. W. Cotton's staff of attorneys, will be elected to that position.

The Corvallis & Eastern is 142 miles long, extending from Yaquina, on Yaquina Bay, to Idanha, in the foothills of the Cascades. Connections are made at Albany with the main line of the S. P. The line operates 18 locomotives, 10 passenger cars and 302 freight and miscellaneous cars.

Prior to the sale of the property President Hammond had planned extensions to the property at each end. He mapped out a survey from Yaquina to Newport and from the present terminus at Idanha across Central Oregon to Detroit.

Whether these extensions will ever be realized cannot now be learned. Mr. O'Brien has not been informed what the plans of the Harriman management are for the road, and as he has no official connection with the line as yet, he has not made recommendations.

The formal transfer of the C. & E. property fully confirms the story recently printed in the Oregonian telling of the purchase of the property by Mr. Harriman.
