A Sad Accident.

Mrs. D. M. Grenache arrived Monday evening from North Yakima, Wash., to visit during the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vertner, at their home near Toledo, on Olalla slough. She was accompanied by three of her children and her sister-in-law, Mrs. P. H. Vertner. Within about an hour after their arrival Mrs. Grenache's two year-old son, David, was drowned. The little fellow had accompanied his brother Harry, aged 19, to the boat landing near the Vertner home. He stumbled over an obstruction and fell into the water. Harry tried to rescue the child, but, being unable to swim, was unsuccessful, barely escaping from the water with his own life. W. H. Vertner, the child's grandfather, next made the attempt, with the same result. The latter's son Charles then jumped into the stream, but was nearly drowned, his father succeeding in getting a rope to him, which he seized while under water. The child's body was recovered about four hours afterward by Ed Altree, who assisted in dragging the stream.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. Ellsworth, was held at the Vertner home at 9 o'clock this morning, followed by interment in Toledo cemetery.

David Grenache, father of the child, and Mrs. R. I. Farrell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vertner, arrived last evening.

Toledo, 12; Elk City, 1.

That's about all there is to this little incident in baseball history. The Elk City team came to Toledo last Sunday full of hope and went home full of goose eggs. In the fourth act Parks came through with the visitors' only counter. For six innings it was good ball, the score standing 2 to 1 in favor of Toledo. Then Elk City went to pieces, while Toledo got busy, adding 2 in the seventh, 3 in the eighth and 5 in the ninth. The Elk City boys can put up a pretty good game, but some of them are apt to get rattled at critical points. All they need is a little nerve tonic—not the liquid brand, either.

The city is constructing a ferry slip for Mr. Smith at the north end of the city wharf.

$5,000 in Cash Prizes.

There is no section of the United States that offers the descriptive writer the opportunities presented by the Pacific Northwest, and Portland and Oregon are especially rich in their variety of attractive and substantial features.

To encourage visitors to include Portland and Oregon in their itinerary and become better advised, and also to be able to tell others, the Portland Commercial Club offers $5000 in prizes for articles on Portland, Oregon and this section of the United States as follows: First prize, $1,000; 2d, $500; 3d, $250; 4th, $200; 5th, $175; 6th, $150; 7th, $125; 8th, $110; 9th, $100; 10th, $90; ten prizes of $75 each, $750; ten prizes of $50 each, $500; ten prizes of $25 each, $250; twenty prizes of $15 each, $300; twenty prizes of $10 each, $200; three judges to be named by Governor Chamberlain, $300; grand total, $5,000.

In order to be eligible for competition, these articles must appear in a regular edition of some newspaper or other publication dated on or before December 31, 1907, printed outside of the states of Oregon and Washington, said publication (complete) to be in the hands of the judges not later than February 1, 1908. These articles must be sealed and addressed to "Prize Contest, care Portland Commercial Club, Portland, Oregon." They will be opened by the judges. Prizes will be awarded strictly on the merits of the articles. Contestants can treat any phase of the subject that appeals to them—natural resources, scenery, irrigation, agriculture and horticulture, timber, dairying, history, educational and religious advantages, climate, social conditions, etc., or in a more comprehensive vein. The judges will be absolutely untrammelled in making their decisions.

This offer is made, not so much with a view of having the country "boomed" in the common acceptance of that term, as to have the people of the country become more familiar with this portion of the United States and give expression to their views in such articles as will be acceptable to papers throughout the entire continent.

TOM RICHARDSON, Manager Portland Commercial Club.

Oregon Girls Good Advertisers.

(Special Correspondence.)

Portland, Or., June 17, 1907.

The Portland Commercial Club's prize contest of $5,000 for articles on Portland, Oregon, and this part of the United States, appearing in papers printed outside of Oregon and Washington is open to every resident of Oregon.

The Pacific Squadron, lead by the flagship Charleston, Admiral Swinburne commanding, will be in Portland harbor during the present week, in attendance upon the festivities.

Oregon has received no better advertisement than the visit of the Oregon girls throughout the East. The newspapers everywhere they visited gave them extraordinary attention, and now comes the Ft. Worth (Texas) Record of last Sunday, devoting its leading editorial to their trip and complimenting the plan as being "novel, valuable and effective for publicity purposes."

The convention of the Oregon Development League promises to be thoroughly successful and especially effective. Many active workers throughout the state are already in Portland and there seems to be a universal desire for the people of this state to add enormously to the population of Oregon as the result of the colonist rates beginning September 1 and continuing until October 31. These rates are exactly the same as were in effect during March and April—$25 from Missouri River and St. Paul territory, embracing 10,000,000 of people; $30 from St. Louis and $33 from Chicago, with $2.50 less for every ticket east of Umatilla.

The newspapers of Nebraska are ringing with the praises of Oregon as a result of the visit to this state of their Governor, accompanied by almost 100 Omaha business men.

The Masonic Grand Lodge was in session all last week, and joined with the Portland Commercial Club in laying the corner stone of the new eight story steel building that will be the home of the Club as soon as completed.

The Oregon bankers met during the week, the attendance being larger and more thoroughly representative than any former gathering of that body.

Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

The Thrice-a-Week World is fair in its political reports. You can get the truth from its columns, whether you are Republican or Democrat, and that is what you want.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 150 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.
