

Remedy for Diarrhoea. Never Known to Fail.

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I can not say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. Jemison, Spring Grove, York county, Pa. This remedy is for sale by O. O. Krogstad.

SUMMER EXCURSION

Special Rates and Train Service to Newport for Season of 1907 via Corvallis & Eastern R. R.

Hotels, resorts and attractions at Newport are now open for the season, and indications all point to this famous "Oregon Coast Resort" being more popular this season than ever before.

A decided innovation, bound to be a source of great satisfaction to visitors and add greatly to the fast-growing only "Oregon Coast Resort," will be the opening on July 3 of the Newport Theater for the summer season by a high-class stock company, made up of some of the best stock actors on the coast, to include various members of the well-known Baker Theater Stock Company of Portland. A series of the best stock plays available will be produced during the season, with frequent changes of bill.

About July 1 there will be opened to the public one of the largest and best equipped skating rinks in the Northwest, containing 1200 square feet of floor space. The rink will open continuously day and evening except during bathing hours.

These two attractions will divide honors with visitors in filling a long-felt want for some place to while away the evening after the close of outdoor attractions.

This company, as well as the Southern Pacific Company and Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, have now on sale season tickets to Newport from all points in Oregon at greatly reduced rates. These tickets can be purchased daily and are good for return until October 10.

In addition to season tickets, this company and Southern Pacific company have placed on sale at reduced rates popular week and three day tickets, good from Saturday to Monday, for the benefit of those who can not advantageously use season tickets, but who desire to make frequent short interval trips to the beach during the season.

This Company will also, commencing Sunday, June 16, provide special Sunday Excursion train from Albany to Newport and return, and have on sale one day excursion tickets at reduced rates for this train.

Passengers holding season, or three-day tickets mentioned, can travel going or returning on Sunday excursion trains.

For information relative to rates, trains, etc., see tariffs on file at stations for public inspection or refer to any agent of Corvallis & Eastern, Southern Pacific or Oregon Railway & Navigation Company. GEO. F. NEVINS, General Passenger Agent.

THE NEW YORK WORLD Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and The Leader together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

"Mister" in Disrepute.

An Oregon editor rejoices that "Mister" is the only title not fallen into disrepute. We cannot agree with him, although we do not see much weighty concern in the question.

In our earliest recollection, "professor" was the most dignified prefix. Professor Smith was principal of our school. In his office upstairs in the shadow, he had a mystic machine for dusting the jackets of bad little boys. A lion-tamer came to town, then a dog trainer, both entitled Professor. We marveled at the title but said nothing. We had too much respect for Professor Smith.

There was a Doctor Jones, also regarded with respect, since he brought brothers and sisters to our house. But there came to town another doctor, who paraded the streets with a brass band and gave a minstrel show to convince sick persons that he could cure them. We could hardly reconcile those two doctor titles, either.

Then there was the "Hon." John Brown, who was treated with great deference, since he gave money to an orphan's home. The Hon. John Brown dwelt in mortgages and foreclosed when he could. Another "Hon." turned out less respectable. His name was James White. He looted a bank and ran away from his family with an actress. The title "Senator" was adorned in turn; likewise "count" and "duke"; also "mister." An editor is always Mister. We have seen some of them good and others bad. One could not abstain from forging checks though imprisoned frequently. Other editors have been guilty of sundry misdemeanors and even crimes. Other trades have had many bad Misters, too.

Therefore, we cannot agree that mister is the only title not fallen into disrepute. In fact, if final proof is wanted we need only cite that when boys we called every man to whom we wished to be respectful, Mister but when he passed out of sight, called him any old name. The fact is, if names or titles were the test of character, we should all be tainted.—Oregonian.

RINGLING BROS. AT ALBANY

World's Greatest Show to Exhibit There on Thursday August 29.

On Thursday, August 29, the people of this vicinity will have an opportunity of attending Ringling Brothers, circus at Albany, and it is probable that many will go from here, as this splendid organization is far better than ever before, being made up almost entirely of European performers new to America.

The equipment to the circus is all brand new, and over a million dollars was spent in adding novel features. The greatest parade ever presented will take place in the forenoon. In it will be 1,261 men, women and children, 658 horses, nine herds of elephants and three miles of hand carved golden chariots, floats and dens, and gorgeous spectacular attractions.

Space will permit of only brief mention of the many European novelties presented in a tent twice as big as that of any other circus. The Roccobono horses wear boots, coats and trousers. One sits in a chair and reads a paper; when the clock strikes ten he lights a candle, goes to his bed, removes his clothes, even to his ponderous boots, blows the candle out and retires. Last winter people went from all over Europe to Paris to see the act.
