

Remedy for Diarrhoea. Never Known to Fail.

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I can not say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. Jenkinson, Spring Grove, York county, Pa. This remedy is for sale by O. O. Krogstad.

SUMMER EXCURSION

Special Rates and Train Service to Newport for Season of 1907 via Corvallis & Eastern R.R.

Hotels, resorts and attractions at Newport are now open for the season, and indications all point to this famous "Oregon Coast Resort" being more popular this season than ever before.

A decided innovation, bound to be a source of great satisfaction to visitors and add greatly to the fast-growing only "Oregon Coast Resort," will be the opening on July 3 of the Newport Theater for the summer season by a high-class stock company, made up of some of the best stock actors on the coast, to include various members of the well-known Baker Theater Stock Company of Portland. A series of the best stock plays available will be produced during the season, with frequent changes of all.

About July 1 there will be opened to the public one of the largest and best equipped skating rinks in the Northwest, containing 10,000 square feet of floor space. The rink will be open continuously day and evening except during bathing hours.

These two attractions will divide honors with visitors in filling a long-felt want for a place to while away the evening after the close of outdoor attractions.

This company, as well as the Southern Pacific Company and Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, have now on sale season tickets from Newport from all points in Oregon at greatly reduced rates. These tickets can be purchased daily and are good for return until October 10.

In addition to season tickets, this company and Southern Pacific company have placed on select reduced rates popular week and three day tickets, good from Saturday to Monday, for the benefit of those who can not advantageously use season tickets, but who desire to make frequent short interval trips to the coast during the season.

This company will also, commencing Sunday, June 16, provide special Sunday excursion trains from Albany to Newport and return, and have on sale one day excursion tickets at reduced rates for this train.

Passengers holding season, or three-day tickets mentioned, can travel going or returning on Sunday excursion trains.

For information relative to rates, trains, etc., see tariffs on file at stations for public inspection, or refer to any agent of Corvallis & Eastern, Southern Pacific or Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company. GEO. F. NEVIN, General Passenger Agent.

THE NEW YORK WORLD Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past. The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 150 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and The Leader together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

The man who wrestles with the cow and learns the calves to suck; who casts the corn before the swine, is now in greatest luck, for butter is on the upper grade; veal's higher than a kite; fresh pork is climbing up the scale and beef is out of sight. The eggs he gathers every day from out his chicken coop are almost worth their weight in gold, and we are in the soup. His corn brings fancy prices, it is rising every day, and he rakes in all kinds of cash for half a ton of hay. The farmer's in the saddle, and when he comes to town, the rest of us, by right, should go way back and then sit down.—Nebraska Exchange.

Peter N. Dailey is a man of imposing personal dimensions, a fact he made use of once to the disgust of a railroad conductor.

Delayed at a small station where the through trains for New York would not stop for the next twenty-four hours, he wired the superintendent at the station below:

"Will you stop at Lonelyville for large party at 9 p. m.?"

The answer came: "Yes, will stop train." When the express pulled in Mr. Dailey started to board a car.

"Where is the large party we stopped for?" inquired the conductor.

"I am the large party," said Mr. Dailey with dignity.

Eczema.

For the good of those suffering with eczema or other such trouble, I wish to say, my wife has something of that kind and after using the doctor's remedies for some time concluded to try Chamberlain's Salve, and it proved to be better than anything she had tried. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

"A man can always be turned down gently so the fall won't bump too hard," said George Cohan in "The honeymooners," "which reminds me of a poor but honest young chap I once knew who fell violently in love with a farmer's daughter.

He was deadly serious about it, and as poor as poor could be. The girl knew something of toil and was weary of it, but she was fond of the man; her moods left him alternately elated and depressed.

"I am afraid there is no chance for me," he confided to a friend one day, in a delicate way she has been discouraging my attentions to her."

"How is she doing it?"
"Oh very delicately. She told me yesterday that she was a twin, her mother was a twin, and her grandmother was a twin."
