Local Notes.

Are you going? Sure! We'll all go. Frank Hyde was down from Eddyville last week.

It pays to trade across the street at Stewart's.

J. F. Stewart has purchased the launch, George, of Ted McElwain.

Harry Fant of the C. & E. bridge crew, spent Sunday at home in Toledo.

G. L. Gray of Newport attended Masonic lodge here last Monday evening.

J. A. Olsson, the Newport real estate dealer, was transacting business in the city yesterday.

Stewart has a gang of apple packers at Elk City and another at McCluskey's farm this week.

The C. & E. work train is making its headquarters at Toledo this week. They are doing repair work up the road a few miles.

Thomas Ferr and daughters of Winant returned the latter part of last week from a month's visit to New York and other Eastern cities.

Beginning Monday, October, 21st, Train No. 1, leaves Yaquina at 6:45 A. M., arrives at Toledo, 7:16. No. 2 arrives at Toledo, 5:40 P. M.

Last Sunday a party composed of G. E. Reeves, Ed Avery, A. M. Smith and Carl Jorgenson, left for the Devils Lake country on a hunting and fishing trip.

General Superintendent Nevins, of the C. & E. and a party of friends went down to Newport Wednesday on a special train. They returned to Albany yesterday.

Surveyor M. Wygant came up from Newport yesterday. Mr. Wygant still goes on crutches, the result of the accident which befell him while surveying up the coast several weeks ago.

After spending the summer in different parts of Oregon, Jesse Plunkett had to admit that there was no place like Toledo, and he returned Tuesday evening and will remain here and attend High School this winter.

Wm. Crawford, father of Mrs. Ed Avery, returned Friday from an extended visit to his old homes in Nebraska and Illinois. Mr. Crawford reports every thing booming back there, but still it cannot come up to Oregon. He says that the crops are good in Nebraska, but in Illinois are nearly ruined by too much rain.

Mr. and Mrs. John Krogstad of Pelican Rapids, Minnesota, arrived Monday evening. Mr. Krogstad is a brother of our fellow townsman, O. O. Krogstad. Mr. and Mrs. Krogstad are here looking for a location for a home on the Pacific coast. This is Mr. Krogstad's second visit to Yaquina Bay.

The Fir & Spruce Lumber Company has graded about 6,000 feet of new road-bed for the extension of their logging railroad up into new timber on the Olalla. The road near the lower railway is being straightened and put on a better grade. The stringers for the bridges have been put in place and the rails will soon be laid. Work is progressing rapidly.

A. W. Weber of Beaver creek was in Toledo Monday. Mr. Weber makes good reports of his neighborhood. Several farms have changed hands and families are moving in. A Mr. Phillips of Dallas purchased the Doubt place; Mr. Guynn of Woodburn bought the Knutson farm, and other purchases have been made. Both of these gentlemen have large families, and have moved in with the intention of making their homes in this county.
