The Banking Situation.

On Monday of this week Governor Chamberlain, in common with the governors of several other states, issued a proclamation giving a five day legal holiday to the banks of Oregon. This was done in order that the banks might be able to protect themselves from the Wall Street panic in the East.

In this connection we might say that the course of the banks of Lincoln county during this period have been peculiarly gratifying to the people of this county, as well as testifying to the sound condition and conservative methods of our banks. The banks at Toledo and Newport, which are allied institutions, have both declined to take advantage of the Governor's proclamation, but have remained open for business and have conducted their business in the usual manner. The only exception to their ordinary methods has been that they have declined to pay out money on checks from outside banks, but have been taking same for collection. This was necessitated from the action of Portland banks in refusing to ship coin or currency out of the city. As soon as this embargo is lifted by the Portland banks, our banks will return to the usual method of cashing all checks properly accounted for. Meanwhile every obligation of our own banks are promptly met by them.

The banks of Lincoln county have pursued a safe and conservative course during their career. Their deposits have not been used for speculation in stocks and bonds, and hence this Eastern flurry has not affected them. They have proceeded on the theory that Lincoln county money should be held and made active in Lincoln county, and for this reason have stuck closely to home investments. They have over $25,000 invested in county and municipal warrants; they have another reasonable amount in good real estate loans; they have over $27,000 due them from their correspondents, the principal ones being the First National Bank of Albany, Oregon, and the Bank of California of Portland, of whose soundness there can be no question. The remainder of their deposits consists of good, well secured promissory notes and cash in their safes, of which latter they have an ample amount to meet every obligation.

The business community of Lincoln county is to be congratulated upon the condition of its banks, and their course in business, as there is no truer reflex to the business condition of a community than their banking institutions.

Senator Fulton will be in Toledo next Monday evening. Come out and hear him at Woodmen Hall.

What Toledo needs just now is those mud and sand bars between here and the lower bay removed, so that vessels can come up the river the same as they did a few years ago.

Business men returning from the East are unanimous in predicting an enormous immigration to Oregon during the coming year. People residing in the great cities of New York, Chicago, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and other population centers never expressed so much anxiety to hear about this country as at present, and the same idea is reflected through the correspondence of the Portland

Commercial Club, much of which is originating in the cities named above.

There is always someone ready to raise a howl no matter how well he is treated. Even now when wages are good and work plentiful there are quite a few croakers who say that even if wages are higher than ever before so is the cost of living. We notice that those who could hardly make a living before can now lay up a little and sometimes have a few luxuries besides.

The City Flour and Feed Store delivers free to all parts of the city.

Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

SUMMER EXCURSION
Special Rates and Train Service to Newport for Season of 1907 via Corvallis & Eatern R. R.

Hotels, resorts and attractions at Newport are now open for the season, and indications all point to this famous "Oregon Coast Resort" being more popular this season than ever before.

A decided innovation, bound to be a source of great satisfaction to visitors and add greatly to the fast-growing only "Oregon Coast Resort," will be the opening on July 3 of the Newport Theater for the summer season by a high-class stock company, made up of some of the best stock actors on the Coast, to include various members of the well-known Baker Theater Stock Company of Portland. A series of the best stock plays available will be produced during the season, with frequent changes of bill.

About July 1 there will be opened to the public one of the largest and best equipped skating rinks in the Northwest, containing 1200 square feet of floor space. The rink will open continuously day and evening except during bathing hours.

These two attractions will divide honors with visitors in filling a long-felt want for some place to while away the evening after the close of outdoor attractions.

This company, as well as the Southern Pacific Company and Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, have now on sale season tickets to Newport from all points in Oregon at greatly reduced rates. These tickets can be purchased daily and are good for return until October 10. In addition to season tickets, this company and Southern Pacific company have placed on sale at reduced rates popular week and three day tickets, good from Saturday to Monday, for the benefit of those who can not advantageously use season tickets, but who desire to make frequent short interval trips to the beach during the season.

This Company will also, commencing Sunday, June 16, provide special Sunday excursion train from Albany to Newport and return, and have on sale one day excursion tickets at reduced rates for this train.

Passengers holding season, or three-day tickets mentioned, can travel going or returning on Sunday excursion trains.

For information relative to rates, trains, etc., see tariffs on file at stations for public inspection or refer to any agent of Corvallis & Eastern, Southern Pacific or Oregon Railway & Navigation Company. Geo. F. NUVINS, General Passenger Agent.
