E. H. Harriman has at least found one thing in Oregon that he likes. He recently purchased at Medford 30 boxes of Spitzenberg apples at $5 a box for his family use.

A Fremont, Nebraska, man attempted to live on a peanut diet, with the result that he died after three weeks of the diet. At the end of four days he went insane and refused to eat anything but peanuts or to drink anything but water.

The people of Southern Oregon are justly raising a howl because the Southern Pacific has taken off two trains between there and Portland. They claim the service was very poor but now it is much worse. They should have had two trains added instead of two taken off.

The calamity howler is having the time of his life these days. The financial situation appears to him just what he has been praying for so long. "I told you so," and "I've expected it for a long time" are some of the sayings of this great public benefactor—the calamity howler.

Our fruitgrowers and orchardists should not forget the meeting called for Tuesday, December 3rd, for the purpose of organizing a Lincoln County Horticultural Association. Such an organization is very badly needed in this county. Lincoln County is destined to become one of the best apple producing sections of the state and with the united effort of all the producers of the county the advancement of this valuable industry will be rapid.

The suggestion of prominent men of Linn, Benton and Lincoln counties that a district fair should be worked up is a long step towards advancing the agricultural interests of this section and one that will bring thousands of dollars to the Willamette valley. The thing for the three counties to do now is to take right hold of the matter and get together and exchange views and ideas and formulate some sort of an organization. It is not a day too soon to begin plans for the holding of such a fair next fall either in this or one of the other counties mentioned. The sooner started the better.—Albany Herald.

A newspaper may boom a town through its news and editorial columns. It may write items without number about the crops, tell of the enormous potatoes, apples, cabbage, and so forth, grown in its neighborhood, but when all is said and done, it is the amount of advertising that appears in a paper that appeals to the investor. To him it is the advertising columns that measure the business done in a town. They are the pulse that he feels to see if the different businesses are prospering. He knows very well that if the local merchants advertise freely there must be a prospect of a good trade with a good country to draw from, or they couldn't afford to do so. Merchants may never have looked at it in this light, but every thinking man will readily agree with us, that when he increases the size of his ad he is helping to boost his town far more than when he pays the professional sealer, and spends his money for all kinds of hot air literature that is looked upon with suspicion and taken with a large pinch of salt.—Polk County Itemizer.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough. REV. JAMES A. LEWIS, Pastor, Milaca, Minn., M. E. Church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by O. O. Krogstad.

THE NEW YORK WORLD Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

SUMMER EXCURSION

Special Rates and Train Service to Newport for Season of 1907 via Corvallis & Eastern R. R.

Hotel, resorts and attractions at Newport are now open for the season, and indications all point to this famous "Oregon Coast Resort" being more popular this season than ever before.

A decided innovation, bound to be a source of great satisfaction to visitors and add greatly to the fast-growing only "Oregon Coast Resort," will be the opening on July 3 of the Newport Theater for the summer season by a high-class stock company, made up of some of the best stock actors on the Coast, to include various members of the well-known Baker Theater Stock Company of Portland. A series of the best stock plays available will be produced during the season, with frequent changes of bill.

About July 1 there will be opened to the public one of the largest and best equipped skating rinks in the Northwest, containing 1200 square feet of floor space. The rink will open continuously day and evening except during bathing hours.

These two attractions will divide honors with visitors in filling a long-felt want for some place to while away the evening after the close of outdoor attractions.

This company, as well as the Southern Pacific Company and Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, have now on sale season tickets to Newport from all points in Oregon at greatly reduced rates. These tickets can be purchased daily and are good for return until October 10.

In addition to season tickets, this company and Southern Pacific company have placed on sale at reduced rates popular week and three day tickets, good from Saturday to Monday, for the benefit of those who can not advantageously use season tickets, but who desire to make frequent short interval trips to the beach during the season.

This Company will also, commencing Sunday, June 16, provide special Sunday excursion train from Albany to Newport and return, and have on sale one day excursion tickets at reduced rates for this train.

Passengers holding season, or three-day tickets mentioned, can travel going or returning on Sunday excursion trains.

For information relative to rates, trains, etc., see tariffs on file at stations for public inspection or refer to any agent of Corvallis & Eastern, Southern Pacific or Oregon Railway & Navigation Company. GEO. F. NEVIN
