The Story of Oregon Fruit.

Working in connection with several commercial bodies, over the state, and aided by the individual fruit-growers, the Portland Commercial Club has issued a fruit bulletin composed of four pages of the New Years Oregonian. Each paper sent out bears a paragraph, conspicuously stamped in two places, telling the reader that he can buy his ticket on the road most convenient to him at a remarkably low colonist rate between March 1st and April 30. The $30 rate from the great middle west is made the striking feature of the stamp—of course mention is also made of rates from other sections. The bulletins are prepared in advance for the use of the agents employed by the various railroads, localizing the rate for their particular line.

The Mid-Winter Livestock Show at Denver just closed was a tremendous success, and many of the exhibitors expressed a determination to be present at the Livestock Show in Portland this coming Fall. The Portland Country Club & Livestock Association have promised the Hunt Club that accommodations will be ready for them in June, and an army of men and horses are at work at the present time to make this pledge good.

The Pacific Coast Ad Men's Association will hold their next annual convention in Portland during the Rose Festival.

The Oregon Development league is exceedingly prosperous. The past two weeks have added three members to the organization—the Stayton Commercial Club, W. L. Freres, President, R. A. Elwood, Secretary; the Commercial Club of Mosier Valley, with Dr. David Robinson, Secretary; the Scio Commercial Club, T. J. Munkers, President, and A. G. Prill, Secretary.

The Hood Qiver Commercial Club will hold its third annual banquet Friday evening, January 31. Delegates will be present from Portland, The Dalles and other cities throughout the state.

Newberg will have a house-warming, under the auspices of the Newberg Board of Trade, on February 1st, celebrating the opening of their fine new Imperial Hotel.

The Executive Committee of the Portland Commercial Club are appealing for additional funds to advertise the resources of Oregon, and at no time during the active work of that Committee have responses been so generous. New subscribers are coming in, former contributors are either doubling or materially increasing their subscriptions, and every cent of it is devoted to advertising the state and not the city.

Complete plans have been decided upon for the Oregon building at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, and up to date it is the most attractive state building yet shown in America upon the grounds of a great Fair.
