SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the state of Oregon for Lincoln county.
Andrew K. York plaintiff vs. Mary York, defendant.

To Mary York, the above named defendant:
In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled suit, now on file in the office of the Clerk of the above entitled Court, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for the publication of this summons made by the Hon. L. T. Harris, Judge of the above entitled Court, which said order is hereinafter referred to, to wit: on or before six weeks from the day of the first publication hereof, and you are hereby notified that if you so fail to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief demanded in his said complaint, namely: for a decree of said Court dissolving the bond of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant and for such other and different relief as to equity may seemeth just.

This summons is published in the LINCOLN COUNTY LEADER once a week for six consecutive and successive weeks, beginning with the issue of November 22, 1907, and ending with the issue of January 3, 1908, under and in pursuance of the directions contained in an order made by the Hon. L. T. Harris, Judge of the above entitled Court and dated Oct. 21, 1907. Date of first publication hereof is Nov. 22, 1907.
B. F. SWOPE, Attorney for plaintiff.

County School Superintendent.

Parties wishing to enter the printing office at this season of the year should be governed by the following rules: Advance to the inner door, give three distinct raps and the devil will attend to your alarm. You will give your name, post office address and the number of years you are owing on the paper; he will admit you. You will advance to the middle of the room and address the editor with the following countersign: Extend your right hand about two feet from your body, with your thumb and index finger clasping a $6 bill which drop into the extended hand of the editor, at the same time saying: "Were you looking for me?" The editor will say: "You bet!" After giving him the news you will be permitted to retire with a receipt for an obligation properly discharged.—Ex.

Register Now.

The registration books of the county are now open and the County Clerk and Justices of the various precincts are now busy registering the voters. If a voter wishes to vote at the coming primaries he must register.

She paused in her Christmas shopping and took out her purse.

"Poor fellow!" She said. "Here is a quarter for you. Go in there and get a turkey dinner and a piece of pumpkin pie. But tell me how did you come to lose your eye?"

The pitiable wreck before her shook his head sadly.

"A-lookin' for work, mum he replied.—Ex.

"Yes," declared a suffragette, "women have been wronged for ages. They have suffered in a thousand ways."

"There is one way in which they have never suffered," said a meek looking man standing up in the rear of the hall.

"What way is that?" demanded the suffragette.

"They have never suffered in silence.—London Telegraph.

CONTEST NOTICE.

U. S. Land Office, Portland, Oregon,
January 3, 1908.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Peter A. McDonald, contestant, against homestead entry No. 14334, made July 21, 1902, for the SW 1/4 of section 32, township 8 south, range 9 west, by Sherman F. Hewett, contestee, in which it is alleged that he is well acquainted with the tract of land embraced in the said Homestead entry, and knows the present condition of the same; also that said Sherman F. Hewett has never resided upon said land, or made his home there, upon to the exclusion of a home elsewhere; that he has made no cultivation thereof; that there are not now, and never has been any improvements upon said land, except a small cabin which is not now, and never has been habitable; that said land is wholly abandoned, and has been abandoned for more than three years last past, and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, sea man, or marine, during the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond, and offer evidence touching such allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on March 23, 1908, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land office at Portland, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed January 3, 1908, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
