Many Sleepless Nights, Owing to a Persistent Cough. Relief Found at Last.

"For several winters past my wife has been troubled with a most persistent and disagreeable cough, which invariably extended over a period of several weeks and caused her many sleepless nights," writes Will J. Hayner, editor of the Barley, Colo., Bulletin. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in its appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The result was indeed marvelous. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

U. S. Land Office, Portland, Oregon, January 4, 1908.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 9, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Cassius H. Mead of Springfield, county of Lane, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 735, for the purchase of the ne $\frac{1}{4}$ of section 8, in township 17 s, range 8 w, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the County Clerk of Benton county, at Corvallis, Oregon, on Saturday, the 21st day of March, 1908.

He names as witnesses:
T. J. Carns of Alsea, Or.; W. E. Allen, Guy Frink of Philomath, Or.; Marvin L. Hammitt of Eugene, Oregon.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 21st day of March, 1908.

Fulton and Heney.

Mr. Fulton is a United States senator, and is a candidate for reelection. He has lived in Oregon since his youth, and has been prominent in the state's politics for many years. He has to depend this year for his nomination, if not for his election, on the people, and they are properly interested in his record, in all his public acts. Not only as a public man but as a citizen he desires to stand well with the people, and has a right to resent any misrepresentations of his public life. More than this, if one attacks him, making serious charges against him, he is entitled, under the present circumstances, to have the charges made at once in full and with all details.

Mr. Heney has made certain charges against acts of Senator Fulton performed years ago, the worst of the specific ones 11 years ago, and has submitted to the public some evidence which is being considered. Senator Fulton has in general terms entered denial, and promises more specific and detailed denial of Mr. Heney's accusations. So far, the people will have to make up their minds after Fulton and Heney have submitted all their evidence and arguments.

But it is not fair to Mr. Fulton, at this juncture, this crisis in his public career, for Mr. Heney to say that he has a lot more to tell about Mr. Fulton, which he may return to tell at some future time. What he knows if any thing of importance, should be told fully now. This is due to the people of Oregon, who are to decide Mr. Fulton's case. It is due in a more specific sense to Mr. Fulton himself, who must leave his case to the near future. He is entitled to know the worst and the whole of Mr. Heney's charges against him, not at some future time, but now, without delay.

Unless Mr. Heney tells all he knows, and so admits, now, the people will have a right to assume that he has nothing further of a damaging character to bring against Senator Fulton. Mr. Heney's case against Mr. Fulton should be fully made up and submitted at once. This, we say, not as a champion or defender of Senator Fulton, but simply as a matter of fair play.—Oregon Journal.

Save Money by Buying Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

You will pay just as much for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as for any of the other cough medicines, but you save money in buying it. The saving is in what you get, not in what you pay. The sure-to-cure-you quality is in every bottle of this remedy and you get good results when you take it. Neglected colds often develop serious conditions, and when you buy a cough medicine you want to be sure you are getting one that will cure your cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

Ladies!

To whom it may concern:
Mrs. Emma B. CONTEST NOTICE.

U. S. Land Office, Portland, Oregon, January 3, 1908.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Peter A. McDonald, contestant, against homestead entry No. 1425, made July 21, 1902, for the sw $\frac{1}{4}$ of section 22, township 8 south, range 9 west, by Sherman F. Hewett, contestee, in which it is alleged that he is well acquainted with the tract of land embraced in the said Homestead entry, and knows the present condition of the same; also that said Sherman F. Hewett has never resided upon said land, or made his home there, upon to the exclusion of a home elsewhere; that he has made no cultivation thereof; that there are not now, and never has been any improvements upon said land, except a small cabin which is not now, and never has been habitable; that said land is wholly abandoned, and has been abandoned for more than three years last past, and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, sea man, or marine, during the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond, and offer evidence touching such allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on March 23, 1908, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land office at Portland, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed January 3, 1908, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
