Many Sleepless Nights, Owing to a Persistent Cough. Relief Found at Last.

"For several winters past my wife has been troubled with a most persistent and disagreeable cough, which invariably extended over a period of several weeks and caused her many sleepless nights," writes Will J. Hayner, editor of the Burley, Colo., Bulletin. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in its appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The result was indeed marvelous. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

Why was it that so many of our men from this end of the county went to Toledo this week namely, Mr. Page, Neils Andersen, Willie Bones, C. Parmale, John Loyd and A. M. Honn.

John I. Butterfield has a gasoline engine which he will soon have in his boat and ready for work.

Mrs. Andersen and sons sold six fine cows to Mr. McClinton last week.

Mr. Jenkins has bought the old cannery of Scott Loin and is tearing it down and moving it to his place on the Siletz River where he will build a large house. He bought windows and doors and a fine range of C. S. Parmale and Sons stores.

If your shoes need mending don't throw them away but take them to Mr. Wicks shoe shop near his store.

The range stock is looking well. Grass is growing and flowers are blooming.
