TOLEDO'S DENTIST—Office in Ofstedahl building. Hours 9-12, 1-4 p. m.

Toledo Appreciates.
Albany people should appreciate the efforts of its young people to help themselves and furnish entertainment by patronizing such affairs as the recent minstrel show given here by the members of Company G. and the Albany band. After weeks of hard work the show was staged in the local opera house. The performance was of high quality, and the small attention it received from local residents is to be deplored. For all their work the band and militia boys only cleared thirteen dollars.—Herald.

We do things different over here. When the fire boys gave a minstrel show, standing room was at a premium. And all local talent shows given here have always been well patronized.

Wife (displaying a large lamp shade recently purchased) Isn't that perfectly lovely dear? And just think, it only cost fifty dollars.

Husband (severely) if you wear that to church tomorrow, you will go alone. There is a limit to everything, including hats.

An exchange says that times have changed in many ways. In former times when a man got a pain in his stomach his wife laid a red hot stove lid on him, and in the morning he was able to slop the hogs, feed the calf and kick the cat. Now if he gets an uncomfortable feeling back of his waist band the doctor calls it appendicitis, lays him on the table, cuts a hole in his anatomy, and he dies—maybe. Again, in the old days you could take your razor or jackknife and trim your corns, put on your shoes and plow all day. Now if you even want to scrape the top of your horny toe, blood poisoning sets in and off comes your leg.

"Jayhawkers of '49"
The DEATH VALLEY MAGAZINE, which is publishing the life of Death Valley Scotty, will begin the story of the "Jayhawkers of '49" in its May number. The "Jayhawkers" discovered and gave Death Valley its name. The story will be written by John B. Colton, one of the survivors who is now 75 years of age. He was the youngest member of the party, being 16 years old at the time.

April 5, 1849, the party, consisting of 36 members, organized at Galesburg, Ill., under the name of "Jayhawkers," and started to the gold fields of California. They were on foot the last 52 days of the trip, having abandoned their wagons and butchered their oxen for food. There are four survivors, one a woman aged 94 years, who carried a child upon her back and keep in line while strong men fell dead or went insane upon the trail.

All of the story will be told for the first time, the humorous as well as the pathetic. Publishers have sought it for 50 years, but the survivors have now deemed it proper and fit to give it to the DEATH VALLEY MAGAZINE.

No pioneer or lover of American history can afford to miss it. The subscription price of the magazine is $1 a year. Every issue contains stories and pictures of the desert worth the price.

The publishers are also giving five shares of stock in the Death Valley Quartz & Placer Mining Company as a premium. The stock is of the par value of $1 per share.

The Most Common Cause of Suffering.
Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease. For the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Liniment will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Otto O. Kroglstad.

Whooping Cough.
"In February our daughter had the whooping cough. Mr. Lane of Hartland recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said it gave his customers the best of satisfaction. We found it as he said, and can recommend it to anyone having children troubled with whooping cough," says Mrs. A. Goss of Durand, Mich. For sale by Otto O. Kroglstad.
