Boy Wanted.

Under the head "Boy Wanted," the South Dakota Spirit publishes the following clipping which all parents of a son would do well to lay before his boy and ask him to read it for the good advice it contains: Boy Wanted—One of any age or breed to fill an important position. Must have a clean face, clean habits and a clean heart; need not know how to roll a cigarette nor how beer tastes, and if he is not up-to-date in all smutty jokes of the pool room his ignorance will be overlooked. He must be a boy who gets up cheerful in the morning, one who can lay down his books occasionally to do an errand, who treats his mother and sister and everybody's mother and sister with respect, and does not refer to his father as the "old man." He must be truthful, prompt, obedient and industrious. He must make his employer's interest his interest, and never be afraid he is earning more than his wages. He is wanted to respond at once to any number. Merchants want him to sweep out the store for a few years, ultimately to take charge of it. Newspapers want him to commence with the crowd at the bottom and work to the roomy place at the top. He is wanted everywhere—in medicine practice, in the counting room, to run great public works. The people want him for Judge in Court, for member of Congress, Senator and President, and the nicest girl in the world wants him for her husband.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Ross Potts Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by Otto O. Krogstad.
