"Jayhawkers of '49"

The DEATH VALLEY MAGAZINE, which is publishing the life of Death Valley Scotty, will begin the story of the "Jayhawkers of '49" in its May number. The "Jayhawkers" discovered and gave Death Valley its name. The story will be written by John B. Colton, one of the survivors who is now 75 years of age. He was the youngest member of the party, being 16 years old at the time.

April 5, 1849, the party, consisting of 36 members, organized at Galesburg, Ills., under the name of "Jayhawkers," and started to the gold fields of California. They were on foot the last 52 days of the trip, having abandoned their wagons and butchered thesr oxen for food.

There are four survivors, one a woman aged 94 years, who carried a child upon her back and keep in line while strong men fell dead or went intane upon the trail.

All of the story will be told for the first time, the humorous as well as the pathetic. Publishers have sought it for 50 years, but the survivors have now deemed it proper and fit to give it to the DEATH VALLEY MAGAZINE.

No pioneer or lover of American history can afford to miss it.

The subscription price of the magazine is $1 a year. Every issue contains stories and pictures of the desert worth the price.

The publishers are also giving five shares of stock in the Death Valley Quartz & Placer Mining Company as a premium. The stock is of the par value of $1 per share.

The Most Common Cause of Suffering.

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Liniment will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

CITATION.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Lincoln County.

In the matter of the estate of Walter M Peek, deceased.

To Mrs. Flora Ross, Walter Peek, Stella Peek all of Kennett, California, and Mrs. Fannie McKenney of Fletcher, Idaho and all other persons interested in said estate, greeting:

In the name of the State of Oregon, You and each of you are hereby cited to appear in the County Court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Lincoln, at the courtroom thereof, at Toledo, in the county of Lincoln, on Monday the first day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to show cause, if any exist, why an order should not be granted to the administrator of said estate to sell so much of the hereinafter described real estate of the said deceased as shall be necessary, towit: The SE¼ of Section 28, Township 13 s, range 11 w, in Lincoln county, Oregon.

Witness, the Hon. B. F. Swope, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the county of Lincoln, with the seal of said Court affixed, this 29th day of April, A. D., 1908.

(SEAL) Attest: IRA WADE, Clerk.

Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequaled newspaper and THE LEADER together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.
