The Fleet at Elk City.

Not the great Atlantic fleet of war ships, but five of fleet of gasoline launches took crowds to Elk City last Sunday to witness the ball game. Here is the lineup of the vessels as they departed from the wharf at Toledo: Abigail H., Captain R. A. Arnold; Traveler, Captain A. M. Smith; Genevieve, Captain R. D. Burgess; Sylph, Captain (also 'Squire') M. N. Anderson, and George, Captain F. W. Carson. The boats carried about fifty people.

They landed at Elk City just in time for dinner at Hotel Elk.

The ball game was called at 2 o'clock. Toledo was shy a battery so Elk City kindly loaned them Pitcher Simpson and Catcher Cook. Frank Carson umpired. It was a good practice game. The boys did good hard work and had lots of fun. The score stood Elk City, 8, Toledo-Elk City, 5.

Waldport Items.

Lestlie Evans returned home Friday evening from Corvallis where he has been ill for several weeks. Leslie was serenaded by his fellow bandmen Friday evening.

Trout are plentiful in the streams near Waldport this Spring. Good catches are being made by visitors who come here to enjoy the sport. Capt. Tyler of the Condor holds the record thus far.

Last week the C. J. Smith Realty Company sold a quarter block in Waldport to R. M. Larsen, of Portland. The lots are directly opposite the new school house and Mr. Larsen has announced that he will build a dwelling there sometime during the summer. Realty in Waldport is steadily increasing in value.

As usual election day passed off quietly in Waldport. One of the special features of the day was the strenuous efforts made by Wm. R. Wakefield for election as Justice of the Peace. Mr. Wakefield is local Postmaster and therefore disqualified from having his name printed on the official ballot, but Mr. Wakefield desired the office and induced a number of friends to vote for him by writing in his name. There was not enough of these however and E. Goin, regular nominee was elected by a good vote. Corwin J. Smith was elected constable and the precinct went dry by five votes.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between C. B. Crosno and C. E. Hawkins, under the name of the Lincoln County Abstract Company, is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Hawkins retiring from the Company.
