The Commissioners' Court at its special session on June 12 did a wise and satisfactory thing when they gave each of the two districts now teaching the high school courses—Newport and Toledo—equal assistance in high school work. The voters at the recent election asked for a county high school, and will now have it. The Court decided to also let the voters at next regular primary election say where the county high school shall be located. In the meantime by the arrangements with the two districts, the high school work will be carried on.

And now comes the season when the sweet girl sips ice cream soda. Pa gets out the lawn mower and rounds out the day's work by several hours additional labor. Ma works overtime ironing shirtwaists for daughter to wear while sipping ice cream soda. Little brother makes sling shots and drives the cow to and from pasture. In fact everybody works but sister.

Special Correspondence.

Portland, Or., June 15, 1908
While cyclones and floods are visiting the South, East and Middle West, and the rising waters are destroying millions of dollars worth of farm and city property, Oregon is enjoying beautiful weather, delicious fruit, and looking forward with the confidence inspired by assured crops this fall.

On June 24th Portland business men will be the guests of Eugene. A special train will leave for the University town at seven in the morning and the party will participate in the opening of the new depot there, will attend the Commencement Exercises at the University and be entertained at a reception tendered by the Eugene Commercial Club.

The house warming of the Portland Commercial Club in its new eight story steel home, which was held last Friday night, brought together a large and enthusiastic body of prominent citizens, and it was probably the happiest event that has occurred in this city since the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

No other engine on the market gives equal value for twice the price. The Ferro is the best Gas Engine for small boats that has ever been placed on the market. It is a durable engine, being of sufficient heft to withstand its power. It is a reversible 2 cycle, 3-port engine—no valves nor cams to get out of order. It is used, exclusively, by several of the largest boat building establishments in the world and gives absolute satisfaction wherever used. It is equipped with a forced feed lubricator, which insures perfect lubrication to all parts of the engine. It has a battery of sight feeds situated on the back of engine where they can be seen at all times. It has a self-priming, quick starting Carburetor of the latest improved pattern. Its water cooling system is entirely hidden, being cast in the engine walls, doing away with external water pipes. The tank for lubricating oil is cast in the engine's base, being out of sight and out of the way. It has an exhaust head cooler and silencer combined and attached directly to engine. This takes the place of the cumbersome muffler, and it never gets hot. Study the cut. Its material and workmanship is guaranteed to be absolutely the best. The Ferro is not a "half-baked" engine, thrown together in any old way, but is elegantly finished in every detail. Write for "Treatise on Gasoline Marine Engines" and enclose 10c. in stamps or coin to pay postage. This treatise explains every detail in the construction of gasoline engines and gives a wealth of information concerning same. Pioneer boat patterns and knock down frame at greatly reduced prices, also Triumph reverse gears, etc.

Exposition Notes.

Airship races will be one of the many attractions at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. The New York Aero club is taking great interest in the matter. The United States government will spend $600,000 for its buildings and exhibits. The management of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition is already taking steps to provide against extortion of visitors while in Seattle to see the big fair during the summer of 1909. Seattle easily took care of about 200,000 during the stay of the Atlantic fleet and at no time during the exposition period will there be as many visitors in the city at once.
