Dated at Toledo, Or., this 26th day of May, 1908.

STOMACH TROUBLES.

Many remarkable cures of stomach troubles have been effected by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One man who had spent over two thousand dollars for medicine and treatment was cured by a few boxes of these tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Otto O. Krogstad's drug store.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lincoln county.
George W. Hawkins, plaintiff, vs.
Caroline E. Hawkins, defendant.

To Caroline E. Hawkins, the above-named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff in the above entitled suit now on file in the office of the County Clerk of the above entitled Court, on or before the last day named or prescribed in the order of publication of this summons made by the County Judge of Lincoln county, Oregon, (being the county where the above suit is pending in the Circuit Court of said county and state) which said order is hereinafter referred to, to-wit: on or before six weeks from the day of the first publication hereof.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief demanded in his said complaint, namely, for a decree of said Court, annulling and dissolving the marriage contract now existing between the plaintiff and defendant and for such other and further relief as the nature of the cause may require and as unto the Court may seem meet.

This summons is published in the LINCOLN COUNTY LEADER once a week for six consecutive and successive weeks, beginning with the issue of June 26, 1908, and ending with the issue of August 7, 1908, under and in pursuance of the directions contained in an order made by the Hon. B. F. Swope, County Judge of Lincoln county, Oregon, (being the county where the above entitled suit is pending in the above entitled Circuit Court.)
Dated the 23rd day of June, 1908.
Date of first publication hereof is June 26, 1908.
C. E. HAWKINS, Attorney for Plaintiff.

THE NEW YORK WORLD Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past. The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

FOR A STRAINED ANKLE.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may be effected in many cases in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation. Try it for a sprain or bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

No Need of Suffering from Rheumatism.

It is a mistake to allow anyone to suffer from rheumatism, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of the relief which it affords. Do not be discouraged until you have given it a trial. For sale by Otto O. Krogstad

Waldport Items.

Henry Howell spent Saturday at Waldport and left Sunday for a trip up the Yachats.

Commissioner Fogarty was in town Friday and spent most of the day on the roads with C. R. Evens, Supervisor.

The lady friends of the band gave a strawberry supper Saturday evening at the dance and the coffers of the band benefitted thereby.

The logging operations of J. D. Kent have been suspended on account of a dispute with the Waldport Lumber Company. Just when work will be resumed is not known.

Justice of the Peace Wakefield was busy Saturday with a case arising over a school election dispute. We are told that a small fine was imposed.

The voting contest for the honor of Goddess of Liberty will close Saturday night. Considerable interest is being taken and Miss Lizzie Ronkosky leads by a small majority with 750 votes.

Claus Ludemann opened his new establishment Saturday evening. Claus opened the doors and everything was free. The billiard table and box ball alley were in constant use during the evening. Later the band slipped up on the merry party and donated a few selections.

We are sorry to say that there is considerable discontent this week among the subscribers of the Newport Mail. Up to this time the last edition has not reached the Waldport patrons who are many. We are told that the paper reached other places on time.

Chitwood and Simpson Creek.

Good roads is the order of the day in this neck to the woods. A. L. McDonald, the supervisor, has a force of men and teams plowing, scraping and crowding the dirt in the sidding and bad places and fixing the road up in fine shape. Something that has been needed for many a year.

W. E. Ball, the Assessor, has been making a thorough canvass of this community the past few days. He is a booster at that business.

Mrs. Kate Babcock of Salem was visiting Mrs. J. E. Wilson and Mrs. Emma Wood the past week. They are relatives.

Hart & Wood are slicing up a fine lot of logs with their DeLoche sawmill and are turning out some fine lumber. Now is the time to build.

J. E. Wilson, the nurseryman, has an order for two carloads of Oregon moss, to be baled and shipped to San Francisco. He will need lots of help.

The bears are scouting around of late in the vicinity of Simpson creek, so the sheep men are expecting to unite and put up a fight on Mr. Bruin in the near future.
