CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY WOULD HAVE SAVED HIM $100.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and I took Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by Otto O. Krogsstad.

Special Correspondence

Portland, Or., June 29, 08.

There is an intense competition between the different communities of Oregon in issuing attractive and convincing literature. Many of the publications circulated to draw attention to this state today are superior to the most ambitious product of the metropolitan printers ten years ago. Up to the present time the most artistic booklet printed in the state is one just gotten out by the Yamhill County Development League. Its reproductions of raspberries, Cherries, prunes and grapes are done in natural colors, and like the picture in the old fable almost deceive the birds.

Secretary W. L. Crissey of the Oregon State Dairy Association has ready for circulation the report of that body for the past year. It is very much the most comprehensive report which has appeared concerning any dairy meeting on the Pacific Coast, and Mr. Crissey will furnish copy to anyone interested, upon request. Oregon has grown wonderfully in fruit, agriculture and general industries, but dairying holds the record for greatest increase dairy products having risen from a value of $5,000,000 annually five years ago to $17,000,000 in 1907.

The Dalles business men have invited the business men of Portland to attend their "Cherry Carnival" Wednesday, July 1, and many people will make tue trip from this city, either by boat or rail.

An interesting meeting vital to the future of Portland, Oregon, and the Northwest, is called for tomorrow at the Convention Hall of the Portland Commercial Club. Transportation questions of deepest moment to this section will be discussed.

When the "National Association of Retail Grocers of the United States" meets in Portland next year, special trains from various parts of the country will be a feature. One is all ready planned by the merchants of Cincinnati, another from Chicago, while Boston has organized a "Portland Club" and they will charter their own car.

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS IS THE PRICE OF PEACE.

The terrible itching and smarting incident to certain skin diseases, is almost instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price 25 cents. For sale by Otto O. Krogsstad.
