S. Elmore and Co., through their representative, F. G. Stillwell, have notified the fishermen of Alsea Bay that the price to be paid for salmon this season is 12 1/2 cents for silver salmon and 35 cents for chinook. The fishermen have notified Mr. Stillwell at what price they will deliver fish. This is in keeping with the usual method of the cannery here. Last season over two weeks of the best part of the chinook run was lost to settle a similar dispute and Elmore & Co. finally had to come to the terms of the fishermen, but the time consumed resulted in a loss of several thousand dollars to the fishermen.

Kernville Items.
