Eddyville Notes.

E. P. Weir of Airle has been in this vicinity buying sheep and beef cattle. R. N. Warnock helped him drive out. When Mr. Warnock returned he brought with him a fine bunch of registered shorthorn heifers which he purchased from the Willamette Land and Live Stock Company. He also bought the show bull, Monarch, of By Geer.

Miss Ida Kygiston went home today after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. R. N. Warnock.

Weather is ideal for haying and everybody is busy.

Several of our boys here have gone out to the Valley to work through threshing.

Charles Johnson has fallen in line and gone to sapping cows.

DIARRHOEA CURED.

"My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle of Phillip, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Phillipian Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old can do as much work as a young man." Sold by Otto O. Kroestad

A Lovers Quarrel.

Two Young persons of German-town had been engaged, had quarrelled, but were two proud to "make up." Furthermore, both were anxious to have it believed they had entirely forgotten each other.

One day the young man called, ostensibly on business with her father, on which occasion it chanced she should answer the door-bell.

The young man was game. "Pardon me," he said, with the politest of bows. "Miss Eaton, I believe. Is your father in?"

"I am sorry to say he is not," the young woman responded, without the slightest sign of recognition. "Do you wish to see him personally?"

"Yes," replied the young man, as he turned to go down the steps.

"I beg your pardon," called out the young lady as he reached the lowest step, "but who shall I say called?"—August Lippincott.

A FAITHFUL FRIEND.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he knows its value and is competent to speak of it. For sale by Otto O. Kroestad.

The foolkiller is always absent on his annual vacation when the hunting season occurs in Oregon, says The Radium. Curry county furnishes the first fatality on record this year, and the accident which caused "Gus" Helming's death was about as stupid a piece of kangle-some gun juggling as could be imagined. The average man who goes into the woods on a hunting expedition is incapable of handling a rifle carefully and the great majority of these should be restricted solely to the use of salt as a hunting accessory. The man who is responsible for Helming's death cannot even furnish the old excuse of mistaking his victim for a deer, and thus his position, while greatly deplored by himself, is simply and solely that of pure criminal incompetency. It would be stretching a point to give him credit for carelessness for there is no evidence that he knew anything about a gun. And, after all, experienced hunters have only themselves to blame when accidents happen in a hunting party through the ignorance of greenhorns.

Owing to the dry season now being at hand and the consequent danger from fire, the City Council orders that no paper or other waste material be thrown on the planking or any of the streets of the city. That if such waste material is burned within the city limits it must be done under careful supervision before the hour of 10 o'clock forenoon, while things are still damp from the night dew and less danger from the wind, and to see that such fire is entirely extinguished before left to itself.
