BASEBALL

The Champions to Play.

The best game of the year will be played at Toledo next Sunday. The teams are Siletz and Corvallis. They have beaten every team they have played against and this game will decide the championship.

Chicago Ladies Fizzle.

Manager Anderson informs us that the Chicago Ladies failed to make good with a game here next Sunday. They may come later.

North Stars Failed.

The North Stars of Salmon River, who were to play the Toledo team here Sunday failed to put in an appearance. However, a scrub game was played in which some real playing and a lot of rag chewing was enjoyed. It was real interesting—especially the tangling.

Siletz 16; Elk City 6.

Elk City went to Siletz Sunday for a game with the Indians. The Indians were victorious by the score of 16 to 6.

Mr. Bethers with his family will go to Hammond, this state, about September 1 where Mr. Bethers has been elected to the principalship of the Hammond schools. They will retain their residence in Toledo, however, and will probably return at the end of the school year next Spring. Superintendent and Mrs. Goin have taken up their residence in this city where Mr. Goin will be near his office.

Murder and Liquor Cases.

Last Friday was a busy day in U. S. Commissioner Charles H. Gardner's court in Toledo.

United States Marshal Griffith and U. S. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Walter Evans came in from Portland Thursday to examine into the murder of Clayborne White and some liquor cases. The most important of these was the murder case. Suspicion having been placed on Carl Logsdon, one of the three Indians who were with White on the evening of the murder, he was brought in and given a preliminary hearing. Commissioner Gardner after hearing the case decided to bind the prisoner over to the Federal Court at Portland.

In the case of the United States vs. Oscar Wood, for taking whiskey on the reservation, Commissioner Gardner also bound him over to the Federal court, fixing his bond for appearance in said Court at $300, which was given and Wood was released.

The next case was against Stewart Rooney, also charged with taking liquor on the reservation. No case was found against him and he was released.

Attorney C. E. Hawkins appeared for Logsdon, and Judge Swope defended Wood and Rooney, U. S. Attorney Evans appeared for the government in all three cases.

Commissioner Gardner placed Pete Muggins and Homer Evans under bonds of $4000, each, to appear as witnesses in the Logsdon trial.

Marshal Griffith departed with Logsdon for Portland Saturday morning.

At Sea All Night.

The large gasoline launch Rose, which has been carrying passengers from Newport out to sea on daily fishing trips, was caught in the fog Tuesday while outside with forty passengers aboard. The fog came in so dense the captain could not cross in over the bar until 6:15 o'clock the following morning.

Considerable uneasiness was felt for the boat and passengers' safety, and the lifesaving crew and schooner Condor went out to look for the missing boat but the fog was so heavy she could not be located.

The passengers experienced a rough night of it. The cabin on the Rose being too small to accommodate but a very few and a strong wind was blowing. They were a cold, hungry, sleepy and tired bunch when they landed at Newport.

Mr. DePoe is musical director of the Haskell Indian Band at Lawrence. This is the next largest and best Indian band in the world. Mr. and Mrs. DePoe like Eastern Kansas but say they are glad to get back home and get a breath of cool sea breeze and be where they will not have to watch for cyclones. They will remain a month.

Fruit and Vegetable Carnival.

Lincoln county will hold a fruit and Vegetable Carnival at Toledo on October 7, 8, and 9th. At the regular meeting of the Toledo Development League it was decided to hold a county fair this fall and a committee was appointed to arrange for same. The committee met and appointed sub-committees, and at the special meeting of the League Wednesday evening the action of the general committee was approved.

Following are the committees appointed:

Program—C. B. Crosno, G. R. Schenck, J. F. Stewart.

Premiums—J. S. Akin, J. J. Gaither, Mrs. G. R. Schenck.

Soliciting—G. A. Hall, G. B. McCluskey, Wm. Scarth.
