THE NEW YORK WORLD
Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only news paper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.10.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA RELIEVED

Mr. Edward E. Henry of the United States Express Co., Chicago writes, "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quirk, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old chronic diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23rd Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except chronic diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once." For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

Up the Bay.

Last Monday, seated on a board in the engine room of a rowboat, the devil from the LEADER office, in company with another engineer and a pilot, cut loose from the city wharf and started up the river to see what they could see.

The first landing was made at N. Strand's wharf. On inquiring at the house for Mr. Strand we were told that he was at the Andersen boat works assisting R. A. Andersen build launches. Orders are coming in so fast for boats that Mr. Andersen finds it difficult to keep up with the orders. Not wishing to butt in where men were rushed with work the party again boarded and started toward Elk City. Just above the old government rock quarry John Micek was found in the hay field. He was very busy but finally stopped pitching hay for a few minutes to talk. The appearance of the place was proof that Mr. Micek was in the habit of working. He has owned this place—the old Mackey farm—but two years, but he has transformed it from a wild, brushy jungle to a fine, well-kept home. He has reclaimed several acres of the rich bottom lands, set out a fine orchard, and is preparing to plant more, built a good house, has several dairy cows, and is prospering.

The party would have stopped next at Anton Krzewski's wharf on the old Sam Logan place, but it is known that Mr. Krzewski has sold the farm to Attorney Hawkins of Toledo, and is getting ready to vacate, so he was not bothered.

The next stop was at J. R. Lynde's, the old Cloak place, where everything was lively. Mr. Lynde was plowing and breaking up a new piece of bottom land. His father and Harry Eyer were building fences. They had just completed harvesting their hay crop. Mr. Lynde is also reclaiming a low piece of ground by ditching. Mr. Eyer was in a hurry to get back to his home, which is up on the mountain back of Mr. Lynde's place as he said he had lots of clearing to do.

The next person to be bothered was Adam Rae, the gardner. He was busy, of course. His launch had just gone to Newport with a load of garden truck, and Mr. Rae and his brother, Robert, who is lending him a hand during the rush, were busy getting berries for a load for the next day. Mr. Rae had just replanted a little strip of ground about 15 x 150 feet to onions. He had already received $70 for the green onions taken off the little patch this summer. It was then getting late and as Mr. Rae had loaded the party down with onions and berries they decided to return home.
