THE NEW YORK WORLD
Thrice-a-Week Edition.

The Thrice-a-Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is shadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.10.

Waldport Items.

F. E. King and party of Waldport returned Tuesday from a successful hunting trip below the Yachats.

The Lamson-Sherman party of Portland arrived Tuesday and went into camp near the school house. They will remain about ten days.

The band gave a dance at Even's hall Saturday evening and entertained a large crowd. The floor of this hall is fine and although the building is small the dancers prefer it on account of the floor.

A petition has been circulated in Waldport a king for the continuation of the noon train during the winter. This just suits the Waldport people as the service along the beach will be changed thereby. At present it takes a part of two days to reach Portland but if the mail stage left here in the morning it would be possible to get to Portland the same evening. The petition has been freely signed by all to whom it has been presented.

Two large automobiles carrying Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Dunning and family, of Portland, arrived in Waldport Monday. The party spent two weeks in the Alsea valley and have not experienced any difficulty on account of bad roads. They are camped at Waldport for the present and are contemplating a trip to the Yachats. Many Waldport people enjoyed a spin on the beach with Mr. Dunning when he proposed to treat all Waldport to a ride. The return trip will be made by Newport or Toledo.

Special Correspondence

Portland, Or., August 17.

Rain was never more grateful to Oregonians than the showers of last Wednesday and Thursday, and messages from practically the whole state join in the thanksgiving. The danger from forest fires in the wooded sections has been greatly reduced as a result.

Four hundred thousand feet of lumber were bought by Swift & Co. this past week for use on their town-site near the plant now being built. Twenty-five dwellings will be started immediately, some quite pretentious for the icers of the company. Hundreds of smaller homes will go up as rapidly as practicable.

Poultry is to have its due recognition at the Livestock Show in September. Over $500 in prizes is offered and the interest may be judged from the fact that already over one thousand entries are booked. Poultry means almost $5,000,000 to Oregon annually.

Eagle Valley, in Baker county, is planning a "Harvest Home Picnic" for the 3d and 4th of September. The whole county will join in the holiday—the very name of the event guarantees enjoyment.
