Elections For 1908.

Registration reopens Sept. 20. Closes for election Oct. 20. Presidential election Nov. 3.

Hoppicking begins next week in the Valley and a great many of our people are getting ready to take their annual outing and, incidentally, make a few dollars in the hop fields.

The people of Lincoln county are preparing for a grand fruit and vegetable carnival to be held at Toledo, October 7th, 8th, 9th, which promises to be a splendid advertisement for that section of the state and its numerous resources.—Grants Pass Courier.

A petition was circulated in Toledo Wednesday asking the railroad company to continue the morning and evening train when the extra passenger train is taken off the run between Yaquina and Albany the middle of September. The petition was signed by most every business man in town.

There is a great demand for first-class dairy cows and the Willamette valley is being thoroughly gone over by buyers of this kind of cattle. Sales are reported at $45 to $50 per head, and cows of the kind wanted are not very plentiful. Think of the bright future for dairying in the western part of Oregon!—Salem Statesman.

W. H. Carlyle who has been engaged as dean of the livestock judges at the Greater Oregon State Fair (Sept. 14-19); is one of the most experienced judges in America having served at the most important expositions. Among these are the Omaha exposition, the International Livestock Show at Chicago, the Charlestown exhibition, the Canadian National exposition at Toronto and the St. Louis world's Fair. Mr. Carlyle is dean of the Colorado state agricultural college.

A fire in the business section of Albany early Sunday morning destroyed $17,000 worth of buildings and stocks. The fire started in the rear of the Eiler piano house and is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. In speaking of the fire the Herald of that city says the fire alarm system was out of whack and it took considerable time for the nightwatch to awaken the people and call out the fire department, then the hydrant wrenches were missing from the hose cart and several minutes were lost before water could be turned on after the hose was coupled on, and the fire extinguishers wouldn't work. They sure have a fine fire-fighting system in that town.

English Walnuts.

Prof. C. J. Lewis of the Oregon Agricultural College has this to say in regard to walnut culture: Oregon has proper conditions for growing the English walnut, but great care should be exercised in selecting nuts, seedlings and grafted trees. That some trees bear inferior nuts, or do not bear at all, is not so much an indication of unsuitable soil as it is that the trees are from seedlings not chosen with care. However, some soil in Oregon will not grow the English walnut. Soils underlaid near the surface by hard-pan, and those underlain near the surface with rock, cement gravel or loose gravel are to be avoided. The price of English walnuts has steadily risen since 1896.

One of the features of the Greater Oregon State Fair (Sept. 14-19) will be the herd of eight performing Shetland ponies, which is owned in Fresno, Cal. The ponies will be raced every day at the fair, with boy jockies, the distance to be one fourth of a mile. None of the Shetlands is more than 42 inches high. The ponies will be at the service of the children during the day and a ride will be one of the delights of the big fair for the youngsters.

"Meet me in the Corral" will be the password for thousands of pleasure seekers at the Greater Oregon State Fair (Sept. 14-19). The "Corral" is the amusement and concession street at the big exposition. Sideshows, stands and many of the restaurants on the grounds will be located here. Numerous free acts and features are being signed up. The "Corral" is a clean and legitimate attraction, no games of chance, immoral shows or fakirs being allowed.

Send Us the News.

The poor newspaper man when created, was only furnished with one pair of ears and eyes. He cannot publish the news if he does not hear or see it, unless someone either tells him or sends it in.

Every newspaper wants to publish the news. The better the paper the more prosperous it will be. Local news items are especially hard to run down. How many times have you been approached by the newspaper man for an item of news and told him you knew nothing of interest. Probably at the time your family was away on a visit or some one from out of town was visiting at your home. Of course you don't mean to deceive the scribe, yet when you received your paper you wondered why you family or friends were not mentioned. A good way to avoid all this is to kindly inform us of the facts or drop a note in the postoffice to the paper. The one item may not amount to much, but several columns of such news is the life of a local paper.

A FAITHFUL FRIEND.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he knows its value and is competent to speak of it. For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.
