Meadow Creek.
John Butler of Toledo was visiting at C. C. Brown's Saturday and Sunday. He was also looking after the flashlight station on Table Mountain, which, as yet, they have failed to get to working.

Mrs. Frank Lang was visiting her mother Mrs. Luke Williams, Saturday.

Mrs. Luke Williams has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Sharp the past week.

S. J. Stewart and family started for the Valley Sunday to see Mr. Stewart's mother, whom he has not seen for years. They will also visit their son, Carson, at the state hospital in Salem on their way back home.

The Hodges and Parks boys went down the creek hunting and fishing the first of the week.

Mr. Randall and son, Will, passed through here Sunday on their way to the Valley.

Mr. Wygant, the civil engineer of Newport, stopped over night at C. C. Brown's on his way home from a hunt on the Creek. He reported bad luck.

Special Correspondence

Portland, September 7th.

Hillsboro, the prosperous and growing capital of Washington county, is celebrating its second rail connection with Portland, the last being an electric line.

The Oregon State Fair opens next Monday, September 14, and continues throughout the week. The showing of all kinds of products, as well as the live stock and industrial display and a great race program without pool selling, insures one of the best Fairs Oregon has ever held.

Immediately following the Oregon State Fair is the Portland Country Club and Livestock Show, and it is certain that these two weeks, during which livestock will be foremost in the minds of the people of Oregon, will have much to do with the more rapid development of that important industry.

The hurry up and build movement throughout the United States, because building material and labor are about thirty per cent cheaper than they were a year ago, is the cause of some spectacular happenings in Portland. Down in the business center they are digging basements by electric light, working three shifts of eight hours each.
