A Shipyard at Portland.

George C. Walker, the shipbuilding contractor, plans a schooner 120 feet long, 30 feet wide with 200 tons capacity. He recently visited the southern coast for the purpose of observing new shipbuilding ways. Other Al- tice, manager of the Lumber Company, made the following proposition to the people: That the town of Toledo would donate $50,000 toward the building of the ship and the Lumber Company would build it, the Toledo Development League to secure control of the ship for the next ten years, after which the town would return to the Yaquina Bay Lumber Company. It is estimated that it will take from $100,000 to $150,000 to build the schooner. The town would not be devalued by the acquisition of the vessel. Yesterday all contracts were signed, the town committee went to work and within a month the schooner will be raised.

The town's proceeds from the schooner will be used to build a school at the park in the city.

George C. Walker, the shipbuilding contractor, plans a schooner 120 feet long, 30 feet wide with 200 tons capacity. He recently visited the southern coast for the purpose of observing new shipbuilding ways. Other Al- tice, manager of the Lumber Company, made the following proposition to the people: That the town of Toledo would donate $50,000 toward the building of the ship and the Lumber Company would build it, the Toledo Development League to secure control of the ship for the next ten years, after which the town would return to the Yaquina Bay Lumber Company. It is estimated that it will take from $100,000 to $150,000 to build the schooner. The town would not be devalued by the acquisition of the vessel. Yesterday all contracts were signed, the town committee went to work and within a month the schooner will be raised.

The town's proceeds from the schooner will be used to build a school at the park in the city.

At the residence of the bride's parents at Harton, Oregon, October 11, 1869, Mr. W. J. Wilson and Miss Mary Lov, both of this county, W. W. Jone, Justice of the Peace, officiating.

Saturday, October 17, at the Commercial Hotel in the city, David F. Hedlin and Mattie Kitts, brother of E. H. Elesher officiating.

Saturday, October 17, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Will Randall and Anna Stewart, witnesses.

A new log of the Oregonian at Stewart's

The Display in Portland.

The display of fruit and vegetables that we exhibited at the fair last week was shipped to Portland and placed on exhibit. The display was such good work that we will print the following taken from the Oregonian: "Capt. A. T. Rose, a very fine and modern arrangement of fruits received from the Yaquina Bay Lumber Company. Very good work." A very fine and modern arrangement of fruits received from the Yaquina Bay Lumber Company. Very good work.

The Time and The Opportunity.

Time there is time in the history of the world and opportunity for the farmer and the merchant to stand side by side in the fair and show the fruits of their labor and the fruits of the land. The farmer can show his fruits and the merchant can show his goods.

The Time and The Opportunity.

Time there is time in the history of the world and opportunity for the farmer and the merchant to stand side by side in the fair and show the fruits of their labor and the fruits of the land. The farmer can show his fruits and the merchant can show his goods.

The Time and The Opportunity.

Time there is time in the history of the world and opportunity for the farmer and the merchant to stand side by side in the fair and show the fruits of their labor and the fruits of the land. The farmer can show his fruits and the merchant can show his goods.