HOW TO CURE A COLD.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the gripp having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

The headquarters of District No. 6, which includes the National Forests in Oregon, Washington and Alaska, will be at Portland, Oregon.

The National Forests in this District are as follows for Oregon:

Cascade, Crater, Deschutes, Fremont, Oregon, Siskiyou, Siuslaw, Umatilla, Umpqua, Wallowa, Wenaha and Whitman.

All business relating to these forests heretofore carried on between the public and the Forester at Washington, D. C., will, after the first of December, 1908, be transacted with the District Forester at Portland. (Address the Forest Service, Portland, Oregon.)

All local business, however, will as heretofore be transacted with the Supervisor of the National Forest concerned.

The margin of profit allowed by the State School Book Commission to dealers being so extremely small, I am compelled to follow the custom adopted by other dealers and demand cash for all school books sold. KROGSTAD the school book man.

Sound Business Sense.

A little chap in Philadelphia, whose father is a prominent merchant and, as such, never loses an opportunity to descant upon the virtues of advertising, one day asked his mother:

"May Lucy and I play at keeping store in the front room?"

"Yes," assented the mother;

"but you must be very, very quiet."

"All right," said the youngster;

"we'll pretend we don't advertise."
