City election will be held Monday, December 7, when will be elected a Mayor, Recorder, Marshal and three Councilmen.

It is with pleasure that the management of the LEADER present to its readers a magazine section of this paper containing stories, information, etc., which will be interesting, and, we hope, appreciated.

We were pleased this week to receive a nice bunch of news from Elk City, which not only ourselves but our readers will appreciate.

A Local Teachers' Meeting.

At Eddyville December 5 there will be a teachers' meeting. It will be a teachers' meeting in name only, for school officers, parents, big boys, pretty girls and school children will find that their presence will be greatly appreciated.

The morning session will begin at 9:30 o'clock. The time after our arrival, up to that time, being used to become acquainted, or better acquainted.

The generous people of Eddyville and surrounding country think it best to not have the hardy school-masters and their dairy assistants to get their dinner at the local hotel or to satisfy their hunger with a few finger snaps, a pound of cheese and a box of sardines, but are going to prepare some victuals as only country women can.

R. P. GOIN.

Notice to Road and School Districts.

No meeting for the purpose of making any special levy for road or school purposes should be called before the first week in December and no levy should be made until the supervisor or clerk has first obtained from the county clerk a certificate showing the total valuation of all property within said district, otherwise the special taxes will be excessive as the valuation of the 1908 tax roll is nearly three times as large as the tax roll of last year.
