That Teachers'

Annual Institute.

It will be held the 26, 27, and 28, of May. We are planning to have the best institute that has been held in this or any other county. I can see no reason why we can't have the best institute as well as the best of many other things, in this county. When it comes to fruits, vegetables, fishes, timber, and other things to numerous to mention we are not surpassed by our sister counties, why should we be in educational matters. When you read the names of the instructors that I have secured, you will say that they are the best that can be had. Now if they have some one to instruct, and the more the better, we will have all the requirements for the institute that cannot be surpassed. The instructors are: State Supt. J. H. Ackerman, E. D. Ressler, President of the Monmouth Normal, Prof. L. R. Alderman, of the U. of O., and Mr. Chas. H. Jones, editor of the Oregon Teachers Monthly. Among the other good things that Mr. Jones will do, will be to lead the singing. We who have heard Mr. Jones sing know that that alone ought to be enough to ensure your attendance. Prof. Alderman, with his boundless supply of enthusiasm will hold your attention while you are there, Ressler, with his winning smiles and pleasant words will be the cause of your ever presence to institutes when he is there, Ackerman, always has so many good things to say the supper bell rings before he has said half what he would, if he had the time. The programs will soon be ready for distribution. Make up your mind to be in attendance, and then don't change it. Whether you are a teacher or not you will be fully paid for your time and trouble, if it is trouble for you to come and listen to such speakers.

R. P. Gorn.

There are evidently a great number of ranchers living on the Yaquina river who do not know there is a law forbidding the throwing of brush, stumps, etc., into the river. A trip up the river will convince one that there are many who violate this law. These obstructions are ruining the river for navigation. They are a menace to life, and some day the Government will be inquiring into this abuse.

The Oregon palate is never without a relish for a good warm, soaking, growing rain, but never did it taste more like a full meal than during the last days of dry, record breaking April.

Owing to the rush of work the Executive Committee of the Fair and Festival failed to have a meeting as called to meet at the City Hall in this city Wednesday evening. Carl Davis of Siletz was here, also Dudley Perkins and C. B. Cresno of this city, besides several interested visitors, but as there was no quorum present no business was transacted. Mr. Davis, who was authorized at the previous meeting of the Committee to engage attractions and a tent for the Fair, reported that while in Portland he made arrangements with Mr. Arnold, the show man, to bring two or three shows down to the Fair. Mr. Arnold agrees to furnish a tent 24x180 feet for the use of the Fair, to give two balloon ascensions with parachute leaps and a daily slide for life and a merry-go-round if the management will grant him free concession. This was agreed upon. Mr. Arnold will bring two car loads of equipment. These shows will be a big drawing card for the Fair and Mr. Davis certainly deserves credit for having secured these attractions.

Waldport Items.

The Condor sailed on the 29th for Portland. She stopped on the way at Yaquina with a load of lumber.

Dr. J. B. Olmsted and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Evens arrived on the 27th. They came straight through from Yaquina the same night making the trip from Portland in one day.

Mr. A. C. Miller, of Kings Valley was a Waldport visitor last week. While here he became a property owner in the town and will build a residence as soon as possible.

The band boys turned out Tuesday evening to serenade Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Evens. After playing several selections the boys were invited in and refreshments were served. Mrs. Evens is a daughter of Dr. J. B. Olmsted.

P. J. Cauthorn, otherwise known as "Shorty Big Horn" arrived last week and has added his musical talent to the band. Mr. Cauthorn has had considerable experience in band work and is a splendid bass player. He is employed in building the Olmsted residence.

A representative of the Elmore Packing Company was in Waldport last week to arrange with the fishermen regarding the coming salmon season. It has not been definitely decided as to the price to be paid for fish this year but it is almost a certainty that the cannery will run.

Mrs. John Rose was buried at the Howell Cemetery last Saturday. Mrs. Rose was nearly eighty years of age and during the last few years has been unable to leave her home on account of sickness.

Ed. Flescher was in town on the 29th looking after business connected with the Bain estate. He rented the place for one year from E. W. Council but the present administrator refuses to recognize the validity of Mr. Flescher's claim.

O. V. Hurt was a Toledo visitor on the 29th where he had gone to attend the wedding of his daughter Mae to Frank O. Johnson. Only relatives were present at the ceremony.

The annual banquet of the Waldport Commercial Club was held on the 29th and a splendid repast was served by a committee consisting of Miss Effie Williamson, Miss Grace Graff and Mrs. C. R. Evens. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and well attended. Dr. J. B. Olmsted addressed the assembly on the Future Waldport and clearly pointed out the way for developing the town. He told of the conditions which led him to invest here and stated that others would be attracted by the same conditions. W. F. Keady, President of the club, acted as toast master and in a brief address told of the work of the club during the past year. He made an earnest plea for the members to keep paid up in dues so that the indebtedness of the club might be paid. The following toasts were given: The Waldport School, by Prof. Earl Brown; Climatic Conditions of the East, by Frank L. Buker; Incorporation of the Town, by C. J. Smith; The Liquor Question, by C. R. Evens; The Present Crab Law, by E. R. Buker; The Church, by Leslie H. Evens.

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION
For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. ROSA PORTS, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by TOLEDO DRUG CO.
