C. N. Thompson has been circulating a petition for the laying out of a road from Tidewater to Toledo. He is receiving much encouragement and if numbers count he will succeed.

The Artisan Lodge elected a new set of officers at their last meeting. The lodge is steadily growing and it is seldom that a meeting passes without the introduction of one or more new members.

Peter Hoover came over from Bellfountain Sunday and spent the first few days of this week transacting business in Waldport.

J. A. Bunch is up from his Big Creek ranch and is doing teaming at Waldport. There ought to be plenty of work in this line for there are no other teams in Waldport at this time.

J. Fred Yates, the Corvallis attorney, came over last week and has been doing some legal work for the telephone companies and the Waldport lumber Company.

Notices of a special road meeting have been posted by our supervisor. The meeting is called for the 14th and it is proposed to levy a sufficient tax to put our roads in good condition.

A benefit dance was given in Kent's hall Saturday evening. The proceeds which amounted to about thirty-six dollars will be turned over to Lon Goodman who has been sick for a long time and unable to do any kind of work.

A band concert and basket social will be given by the band boys on the seventeenth. Admission will be ten cents and ladies with baskets will be admitted free. After supper the floor will be cleared for dancing, which will be free.

An army of men is at work building railroads up the interior of the state. The Winter season is not stopping the work and during the coming year trains will be run into Central Oregon, making a wide agricultural region accessible to farmers. New railroads, too, are entering the coast country, while in the Southern end of the state, railroad builders are pushing north from Klamath Falls to Natron on the new Southern Pacific line. Electric projects are active in the Willamette Valley. On the whole it looks like the coming year will be a record one in railroad building for Oregon.

Ben Jones Gets Job.

Representative B. F. Jones of Lincoln and Polk counties, has been named to succeed Benjamin L. Eddy as register of the Roseburg land office. The appointment comes through Senator Bourne.

Ben Jones' friends in Lincoln county are many and they are glad to hear of this honor conferred upon him.

The City Election.

The annual City election held last Monday resulted in the election of C. B. Crosno, Lee Wade and Lee Bartholomew as councilmen, and Ted McElwain as marshal. There was but one ticket and everything passed off very quietly. There was about half the votes cast. Neither Wade nor Bartholomew's names appeared on the ballot, but friends of the gentlemen elected them by writing their names on the ballot. Crosno and McElwain were the only names printed, Messrs. Wade and F. W. Carson, who were nominated, refused to accept the nomination.

Louie Fuller Jugged.

Last Tuesday morning Louie Fuller, an Indian from Siletz was tried in Justice Norm Anderson's court for stealing a watch from H. E. Peterson the jeweler.
