SAVED AT DEATH'S DOOR.

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murray W. Ayers, of Transit Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes, "my skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken; tongue coated; emaciated from losing 40 pounds, growing weaker daily. Violent liver trouble pulling me down to death in spite of doctors. Then that matchless medicine—Eleteria Bitters—cured me. I regained the 40 pounds lost and now am well and strong." For all stomach, liver and kidney troubles they're supreme. 50c at Toledo Drug Co.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Lincoln:

Felaine Mungler, Plaintiff, vs.
John W. Mungler, Defendant.

To the above named defendant, John W. Mungler:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and suit, now on file with the Clerk of said Court, on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: on or before the 11th day of February, 1910.

And you are notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit, for a decree of said Court dissolving the marriage contract now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant; and further, that plaintiff be restored to her former name, to-wit: Felaine Eddy, and for such other and different relief as to equity seemeth just.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of Honorable Chas. H. Gardner, County Judge of Lincoln County, Oregon, made on the 30th day of December, 1909 directing publication thereof once a week for six consecutive and successive weeks in six issues thereof, beginning with the issue of December 31, 1909, and ending with the issue of the 11th day of February, 1910, in the Lincoln County Leader, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, printed and published at Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon.

Date of first publication December 31, 1909.
G. B. McCLUSKEY,
Attorney for Plaintiff.
